

Dear Sir / Madam,

I am writing to express my enthusiasm for the summer internship opportunity at ByrneWallace LLP as advertised on your company's website. With a strong passion for law and a keen interest in your firm's renowned expertise, I am excited about the possibility of contributing my skills and dedication to your esteemed organization.

I am currently pursuing a degree in Business and Law at Technological University Dublin, where I have developed a solid foundation in legal principles and honed my analytical and research abilities. My coursework, coupled with my active involvement in the law society has equipped me with a deep understanding of legal concepts and a keen awareness of the dynamic challenges faced by the legal industry today.

What particularly excites me about ByrneWallace LLP is your commitment to innovation and your reputation for providing exceptional legal services. During my academic journey, I have had the opportunity to engage in organising a fundraising event for Breast Cancer Ireland, where I showcased my adaptability, creativity, and problem-solving skills. These experiences have not only strengthened my legal acumen but have also instilled in me the importance of staying ahead in a constantly evolving legal landscape.

I am particularly drawn to your firm's emphasis on fostering a collaborative and inclusive work environment. My previous experiences, such as volunteering in a creche and working in a staff of over 80 people have allowed me to thrive in diverse and cooperative settings. I am confident that my ability to work effectively within a team, coupled with my passion for law, would make me a valuable asset to your organization.

Furthermore, I am impressed by ByrneWallace LLP's commitment to social responsibility and community engagement. Having been involved in volunteering in a creche and coaching young GAA players, I share your firm's values and am eager to contribute to your initiatives aimed at making a positive impact on the community.

Enclosed with this letter is my resume, which provides additional details about my academic and extracurricular achievements. I am enthusiastic about the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experiences align with the needs of ByrneWallace LLP. Thank you for considering my application. I am looking forward to the possibility of contributing to your team and learning from the talented professionals at your firm.

Yours sincerely,

Amy Reidy
