

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my keen interest in the Byrne Wallace Internship and to formally submit my application for the internship position. I discovered this exciting opportunity through Trinity College Dublin's career website, and I am confident that it offers an ideal platform for me to advance my career aspirations.

Currently, I am pursuing a Master's degree in Intellectual Property and Information Technology Law at Trinity College Dublin. I completed my Bachelor's degree in Law at Tianjin University of Science and Technology in China in 2018. Following graduation, I gained four years of valuable experience at the Trademark Office of the China National Intellectual Property Administration in Beijing. This professional journey has equipped me with a wealth of legal and practical knowledge, enhancing my teamwork, communication, and problem-solving skills.

My strong interest in Byrne Wallace stems from the company's distinguished reputation in the legal field and its commitment to employee development. I am convinced that participating in the Internship will afford me the opportunity to further refine my professional skills and collaborate with some of the most accomplished legal professionals in the industry. I am eager to contribute my skills within your esteemed company's professional environment, anticipating a valuable exchange of experience and knowledge to propel my future in the legal profession.

I am enthusiastic about the prospect of discussing in detail how I can contribute to Byrne Wallace during an interview. Thank you for considering my application. I am looking forward to the opportunity of exploring my candidacy further.

Sincerely,
Guo Chenchen
