Subject: Application for a legal internship

To whom it may concern,

I am writing you this letter in order to apply for an internship in your law center. I am a French student in International Law and Foreign languages, and I am currently finishing my last year of Master's degree (5th year of Law studies) at the University of Nantes.

As a requirement for the graduation of my master's degree, I must complete an internship abroad, and to write a comparative law thesis in one of my foreign languages. The internship is expected to take place through Spring 2023 and lasting 3 to 4 months. Corporate Law and Commercial Law, especially, are areas in which I would like to work in the future and performing this internship in your office would be the perfect opportunity.

I have already experience in the legal framework. I indeed completed last year a legal internship in an office in Brest (France) specialized in civil and commercial law for 2 months, in which was brought to work on client's cases (with their preparation through legal research), to attend and participate in client meetings, and to draft numerous legal documents in French and English. I am therefore entirely prepared and ready to carry out legal research and to prepare and draft legal documents or notes and opinions regarding cases if needed, in English, but also in Spanish, brought by my formation.

Indeed, I have a strong proficiency in foreign languages and in law, as for 5 years now, I have been studying the essential areas of law (Employment Law, Corporate Law, Contract, International Private Law...), and legal English and Spanish through various translations and studies of legal documents (contracts, landmark cases, constitutions...).

As a French native and multilingual jurist with an advanced practice of the English language, I would be happy to contribute and provide my different skills to your team. I am also totally prepared for translating all types of documents and would be glad to help you if the opportunity arises.

Accomplishing this internship in your offices would be an excellent opportunity for me, as it would beside allowing me to graduate, allow me to gain legal experience and new key skills, working along with skillful lawyers. It would also be an excellent way to start my professional career, as in the future I would like to become a lawyer or an in-house counsel in a law firm dealing with international matters.

Dynamic, adaptable, highly motivated and with a great capacity for work, I sincerely hope to meet your criteria and to join your team. I remain available for any question regarding my application or my career projects, and for a Skype or zoom interview if my profile interests you.

Sincerely yours,

Arnould Laure
