Dear Sir or Madam

My name is Scott Gannon, I am student currently studying Economics, Politics, Law in Dublin City University and am very interested in this Internship position in Byrne Wallace.

Currently, I work as a Stockroom Assistant, in Dunnes Stores Henry Street. In this role I have garnered administrative knowledge, leadership skills, time management and team-oriented skills. I feel this role really put me into a task-oriented position and really let my management capability come to light. When awarded agency I can put my skills and devotion to task at hand using my initiative. As well as this when given a task or order I will execute it above best of my ability.

Upon reviewing the details of the internship, I feel I would be a great fit and am eager to join your team as I am a very outgoing and sociable person with a keen interest in law, preferably employment law. I am confident that my college expertise will come as a great asset to help with the processing of knowledge with your firm.

My CV is also attached with further details of my qualifications, I look forward to speaking to you about this exciting opportunity.

Kind Regards,

Scott Gannon
