To whom it may concern,

I would like to apply for a place on the Byrne Wallace Summer Internship Program as advertised on your website. I am currently in Final year of my Law degree (LLB) in Technological University Dublin. I have maintained a 2:1 average throughout my degree. I currently have two years' experience working as a legal assistant for Jeanne Boyle and Co Solicitors, a general practice firm with a specialty in Immigration and Human Rights.

I am particularly intrigued by Byrne Wallace as this firm seems to have a very broad range of practice areas ranging from mergers and acquisitions to corporate crime and childcare law. This shows the firm's extensive expertise and along with it placing in The Irish Independent's list of 'Ireland's Best Law Firms 2023' I can clearly see that this firm is at the forefront of its field. From observing your website, I can see that Byrne Wallace takes teamwork and training very seriously. These are two attributes I appreciate greatly, and this drove me towards the firm as well.

In return, I believe I have much to offer Byrne Wallace. I am already experienced in drafting affidavits and filing documents in the Central Office. This, along with preparing books for our Supreme Court case has led to me developing a keen eye for detail and a true appreciation for the need to double-check documents. Through my attendance at Cloverhill Courthouse, where I have dealt with some emerging cyber-crime cases, I have learned how to take note of court proceedings and how to interact with our clients and their families.

Along with my legal experience I also believe that I will bring a new perspective to the firm as I have had the opportunity of taking the only available undergraduate module of Law and Technology this year. It teaches us how to integrate new technologies into the legal profession and how to navigate Data Protection laws and the newly emerging AI laws.

I am convinced that I can successfully navigate my way through the internship in Byrne Wallace and would greatly appreciate the opportunity.

I have enclosed my CV for your attention.

Yours sincerely,

Tara Murphy.
