Byrne Wallace LLP,
Summer Internship
Application,
Monday, 12th Feb 2024.

DEAR HIRING MANAGER,

I am writing to express my earnest interest in the Summer Intern Programme at Byrne Wallace LLP, a prospect that recently came to my attention through your advertised opportunity. Following a review of the specified criteria for prospective candidates, I am confident that my academic distinction, professional trajectory, and personal attributes align seamlessly with the exacting standards upheld by your esteemed firm.

My academic credentials include a First-Class Honours LL.B, complemented by the successful completion of the FE1 examinations. My professional trajectory encompasses roles as a Legal Executive at Tiernan & Co. Solicitors and a Paralegal at Cahir O'Higgins & Co. Solicitors. This tenure has endowed me with invaluable experience across diverse legal domains, notably personal injury, civil litigation, and criminal defence. Presently, I am immersed in a traineeship within the LIBE Commission, augmenting my understanding of safeguarding civil liberties and human rights at the European level.

With a profound commitment to delivering exceptional training and fostering an inclusive and opportunistic environment, your firm exemplifies the caliber of organisation where I aspire to launch my legal career. The dedication to providing first-rate training, as articulated in your programme overview, deeply resonates with my professional ambitions. I am particularly drawn to the structured mentorship and guidance offered by seasoned partners and practitioners, recognising its pivotal role in refining legal acumen and navigating the intricacies of commercial law proficiently.

Further, the prospect of obtaining an interview for the Trainee Programme upon the successful culmination of the internship holds considerable significance in accordance with my enduring career objectives. This opportunity not only underscores Byrne Wallace's steadfast commitment to identifying and fostering prospective legal practitioners but also aligns meticulously with my aspirations for a gratifying and impactful career in commercial law. The potential of securing a training contract emerges as the most compelling catalyst motivating my application for a summer internship position within your esteemed organisation.

The opportunity to partake in Byrne Wallace's Summer Intern Programme represents a compelling gateway to further nurture my legal acumen and stands out as the ideal destination for my professional growth. Enclosed with this correspondence is my comprehensive resume, providing an in-depth overview of my academic and professional trajectory. I wish to convey my appreciation for the consideration of my application and look forward to the prospect of engaging in the opportunity to discuss my candidacy further.

Yours Sincerely,
Theodora Ciuta.
