

Dylan Byas

29 Shangan Avenue
Santry,
Dublin 9

+353 89 257 3700

dylan.byasps@gmail.com

Personal Profile

Second-year BCL student at DCU expecting to graduate in 2025 with a 2:1, and part-time employee at Q-Park Ireland. I possess exceptional legal advocacy skills and occupy a high degree of business etiquette, disciplined to demonstrate my skillset in a professional environment.

Education

Dublin City University

2021-2025

Bachelor in Civil Law (expected 2:1)

Core Modules: Constitutional Law, Contract Law, Company Law, Criminal Law, Critical Approaches to Law, EU Law, and Tort Law.

Academic Projects: Moot Court module, recorded video conversation, narrow research essays, and oral presentation.

Beneavin De La Salle College

2015-2021

Leaving Certificate 2021 (540 points)

Relevant Professional Experience

Peter Gartlan Solicitor, 19 Mountjoy Square, Dublin 1

June-August 2019

Transition Year Intern

- Administrative duties to manage incoming post/DX, update databases, and other prioritisation of meticulous, time-sensitive work to assist in the office's operations.
- Managing phone and email correspondence in a polite and professional manner to assist clients with queries, while maintaining a positive rapport.
- Preparing schedules for concluding mortgages and ordering Land Registry documentation to contribute to legal procedures.

Other Employment History and Voluntary Work

Q-Park Ireland, Glover's Alley, Dublin 1

December 2021 – Present

Parking Host

- Attending to customer queries and issues with an excellence in customer service.
- Technical proficiency to navigate various online operating carpark systems and machinery reparation procedures.
- Delegating workloads within a cluster to ensure flawless operations across eight of Dublin's busiest carparks.
- Attuned to high-pressured working environments requiring flexibility and adaptability, to further enrich discerning qualities and problem-solving abilities.

The Comet Pub / Carry-Out Santry, 243 Swords Road, Dublin 9

April - Dec 2021

Retail Assistant, Bartender

- Operating a till to manage the sale of goods.
- Attending to customer queries and delivery orders, in-store and over the phone.
- Stocking, stocktaking and cleaning duties.
- Inducting and leading new staff.
- Responsible for cashing up shop till and locking up.

Sports Across Ireland, Ballymun Road, Dublin 9

2016 – Present

Volunteer Coach

- Coaching basketball to children aged 6-14, involving the supervision and engagement in sporting activities between large groups.

Skills

- IT skills and competent use of Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Teams, and Zoom.
- Q-Park E-Learning Workplace-Training Modules on health and safety, anti-fraud/bribery, modern slavery, data protection, cybersecurity, inter alia.
- Lasallian Prefect and Leadership Training.

Interests and Achievements

- Music: multi-instrumentalist with a passion for songwriting and music-making, having performed original songs at venues such as Croke Park and The Helix.
- Creative Writing: aspiring author of a short-story anthology series, poetry collection, and ambitious for a novel series.
- Sports: engaged in a variety of sporting activities including cycling, indoor rock-climbing, hiking, weight-training, running, and football.
- Completion of Golden Ticket Weekend, Globe Business College (Munich) 2019
- Finalist Host of the Year 2020 (No Name Club)
- Former adult volunteer and Youth Council member with Finglas No Name Club.
- Voluntary affiliations with SVP, Simon Community, IYF, Aisling Project, Pieta House, Localise, et al.
- Highest Leaving Certificate Points 2021 (Beneavin)
- Completion of EUE and CTYI Programmes (2016-21)

References:

Available On Request.