

Eabha Nee

Ros Muc, Connemara, Galway

0873559586 | e.nee6@universityofgalway.ie

PERSONAL PROFILE

2.1 Honours Law (BCL) student at the University of Galway. Excellent time management, teamwork skills and strong work ethic acquired through retail environment. Responsible, quick-learning individual with strong analytical skills.

EDUCATION

2022 to Present Law (BCL) University of Galway

Overall Grade: 62% (2:1)

Second Year Modules: Criminal Law, Company Law, Administrative Law, European Union Law, Evidence Law, Information Technology Law, Moot Court.

First Year Modules: Understanding the Law (70%), Critical Thinking for Lawyers (62%), Constitutional Law (70%), Family Law (63%), Tort Law (58%), Contract Law (53%)

2022 Leaving Certificate Colaiste Cholmcille, Inverin, Galway (552 points)

Subjects: Irish (H1), English (H1), French (H2), Maths (O3), History (H2), Home Economics (H2), Agricultural Science (H2), Link Modules (Distinction)

WORK EXPERIENCE

August 2023 – Present Residential Assistant The Westwood Student Accommodation, Galway

- Assisting in supervising and supporting residents.
- Responding to complaints, reports, requests, and emergencies.
- Organising and promoting events and activities for residents.
- Building relationships with residents and other local businesses.
- Holding regular meetings and communicating consistently with co-workers and management.

Summer 2022 + 2023 General Operator Viatrix (Mylan) Costello, Galway

- Complied with high quality standards when packaging pharmaceuticals.
- Drafted reports to be submitted to quality assurance and control.
- Adhered with Good Manufacturing Practice and EHS standards.
- Handled pharmaceuticals carefully to avoid incidents and physical damage.
- Worked as a team with other workers to achieve targets.

November 2022 – January 2023 M.A.C Seasonal Staff Brown Thomas, Galway

- Welcoming and engaging with potential customers as they entered the store.
- Working with cash registers and several types of payment methods.

- Assessing customers' needs, answering their questions, and giving advice in person and via phone.
- Attaining sales goals weekly.
- Opening and closing the counter.

SKILLS

Languages: Fluent Gaeilge and English, Verbal and Written, Conversational French.

Flexible and Adaptable: Responds quickly to changing ideas, responsibilities, trends, strategies, and other processes. Able to deliver when facing unexpected obstacles and changing circumstances while maintaining a positive attitude.

Communication: Confident, articulate, and professional speaking abilities. Empathetic and engaged listener. Communicated efficiently and professionally during all relevant work experiences. Liaised with residents and customers with issues at the Westwood and Brown Thomas.

IT Skills: Fully proficient in all Microsoft Office including Word, Excel, and PowerPoint. Detailed knowledge of information technology law as studied in University of Galway. Competent user of social media platforms such as Instagram, Twitter, and Facebook, actively used these skills to promote events and engage with residents at the Westwood.

ACHIEVEMENTS

- Fully licensed driver
- First Aid qualification, 2023
- Manual Handling qualification, 2022
- Achieved 1st place in the Oireachtas Liteartha in 2016
- Achieved 1st place in the Comortas Aithriseoireacht at Oireachtas na Samhna 2016
- Scholar of the Year at Colaiste Cholmcille 2018
- Class President at Colaiste Cholmcille 2019/2020

INTERESTS

- Active member of the Cumann Gaelach at University of Galway.
- Enjoy local history and worked in local heritage centre, Ionad Cultúrtha an Phiarsaigh in 2020.
- Member and frequent participant in an Cumann Rince Seite, an up-and-coming society at University of Galway.
- Passionate about Gaeilge and keeping our native language alive.

References available on request.