

Hugh Hanly

Professional summary

A hard-working, curious, ambitious, and diligent student, looking to develop and prepare a skill set for a fruitful career in the legal sector. Highly motivated to take initiative and learn about the work culture within a major law firm. Wanting to work with and learn from the best, while offering the firm value wherever possible. An adaptable and flexible team player with strong time management and organisational skills. Confident in meeting tight deadlines, while always looking for opportunities to improve.

Hobbies and Interests

I enjoy playing and watching sports, particularly soccer. Music is another passion of mine, and I have recently taken up guitar. I also enjoy running, cooking, and reading. In University I am a member of the Law, Debate, Investing, Enterprise and Accounting and Finance societies respectively.

Work history

Lough Rynn Castle - Head Porter

Mohill, County Leitrim
05/2023 - 09/2023

- Ensuring guest's stay was enjoyable as possible, explaining history of estate, accompanying them to their room with their luggage.
- Welcoming wedding guests upon arrival. On average the hotel accommodated 3 weddings per week.
- Chauffeuring Bride and Groom around the estate for photographs the estate and surrounding lake.
- Keeping lawns and hotel reception area immaculate at all times.
- Setting up/ dealing with specific wedding requests dictated by couple.

Wincove Construction - Traffic management operative

Strokestown, County Roscommon
06/2022 - 08/2022

- Worked with Wincove Construction in maintaining even spread of stone across newly laid roads.
- Acquired safe pass to ensure all regulatory requirements were met.
- Prevented traffic congestion buildup through successful planning of reroutes and detours.
- Completed 22 roads during Summer of employment.

✉ hhanly95@gmail.com
☎ 086 041 8281
📍 145 Temple Court, Northwood Avenue
Santry, Dublin D09 T672

Skills

- Effective communication from interaction with guests and staff while Portering.
- Academic writing, drafting, and research as part of The Academy in Congowes Wood College. The Academy involved researching and presenting chosen academic paper to year group, and senior staff.
- Efficient delegation following from role as head porter.
- Organisational skills from traffic management.
- Leadership skills as was appointed House Leader in Boarding School. This involved mentoring/ advising younger year groups, gathering feedback, and making decisions on behalf of year group.

Education

09/2022 - 06/2026

Dublin City University

Dublin, Leinster

Bachelor of Arts: Economics, Politics and Law - I have maintained a 2:1 average across all modules.

08/2016 - 06/2022

Clongowes Wood College

Clane, Co Kildare

Leaving Certificate: Secondary

Education - All subjects were taken at higher level.

- Achieved 500 points