INTRODUCTION

I am in my first year of a two-year Master's course in international business law in Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne University. I am looking for an internship for the summer of 2022 in the areas of international arbitration or international trade law. I believe that my international background, linguistic abilities, analytical attributes and previous legal experience give me the right tools to contribute to any work environment.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

2021

INTERN
