

PATRICK O'FARRELL

SUMMARY

An Economics undergraduate with excellent interpersonal, communication, and problem-solving skills. I am a driven individual with lots of experience as a team player in academic, working and sporting situations. I have a strong desire to combine my analytical, inquisitive mind with my up-to-date knowledge of developments in the Legal and Business world to pursue a career in Law.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Economics | Trinity College Dublin | 2021-present •

Graduating 2025 with Expected First Class Honours (1.1).

- First year result: 2.1, Second year result: 2.1.
- Key Modules Studied: Mathematical and Statistical Methods, Intermediate Economics, Constitutional Law, EU Law, Mathematical Economics, Econometrics, Investment Analysis, Economic Analysis, Money and Banking.
- Notable Projects:
 - Mathematical Economics: Completed a group research project using Markov chains to analyse the effect of changes in income on an individual's happiness levels. Skills: Teamwork, Data collection and processing, Presentation of results.
 - Econometrics: Conducted research project on the effect of class sizes on students test scores in the US. Skills: Regression Analysis, STATA statistical software, Data analysis.
 - Constitutional Law: Engaged in case research project on: Burke V Minister for Education [2022]. Skills: Case analysis, Case Law research, Ethical/Logical reasoning.
- Societies: Trinity SMF, Snowsports, DUDJ
- 579 Leaving Certificate Points

ACHIEVEMENTS

Belvedere College SJ | 2014-2020

- Appointed to Prefect leadership group in sixth year by both teachers and classmates.
- Competed for: the Senior Cup Rugby team, the athletics team, and the cricket team.
- Member of the St Vincent De Paul Society and a volunteer for the soup run.

INTERESTS & SKILLS

- An avid reader who is also interested in culture, travel, the creative arts and engaging in new experiences.
- Coaching staff of the Bulls rugby team for children with additional needs and a member of Clontarf Rugby Club.
- Engage in reading of financial/legal literature, staying up to date on current trends. Technical Skills: Excel, Word, PowerPoint, Stata, Beginners Python.

EXPERIENCE

Junior Sommelier | Hawksmoor Dublin | 2023-present

- Tasted potential wines for listing and helped with curation of the restaurant's wine list.
- Communicated with vendors and engaged in stock management and rotation.
- Mentored peers by providing food and wine training to fellow staff members.

