WORK EXPERIENCE

Eversheds, Dublin - Intern

August 2016 – Current

I am currently working in the Litigation Department of this leading Dublin law firm. This role involves a high level of responsibility, as I currently have several cases assigned to me. My key responsibilities include;

- drafting, swearing and filing legal documents such as Notice of Motions, Grounding Affidavits and Affidavits of Service;
- attending court and directing Counsel;
- liaising with our clients for instructions; and
- drafting letters to parties involved in proceedings.

Irish Superior Courts, Dublin – Judicial Assistant (Intern)

June 2016 – July 2016

I was one of two students chosen by my university to complete an internship with a judge of the Court of Appeal. My responsibilities included conducting research, attending court with the judge, drafting judgments and proofreading. I also spent a brief period assigned to a judge of the High Court.

HROne, Shanghai – Legal Intern

January 2016 – February 2016

I have completed a legal internship in the Shanghai headquarters of the international HR consultancy firm HROne. My responsibilities as the only native English speaker in the office included;

- aiding in the translation and research of a manual for consultation on all matters related to HR and labour law in the Shanghai Municipality and China in general;
- drafting and formatting international partnership agreements and service contracts; and
- playing an active role in conference calls and negotiations with current and potential international clients and partners.

O'Hara Solicitors, Athenry – Legal Intern

July 2015 – August 2015

I have completed a legal internship in the above mentioned Irish law firm. My responsibilities included drafting legal documents, file work, general office tasks and conducting legal research.

Electric Ireland, Dublin – Intern

May 2014 – January 2015

I completed a business related internship in the head-office of Electric Ireland. My responsibilities revolved around newly acquired and departing customers.

Dolan's Centra, Ballinasloe – Shop Assistant

May 2010 – May 2014

VOLUNTEERING EXPERIENCE

My volunteering experience includes participation in fund raising charity runs in Ireland and social outreach programmes in China.

IT

I have experience using legal databases for research purposes, SAP, all standard Microsoft Office programs as well as electric document management systems.

INTERESTS

I have an interest in sport and reading. I also have a keen interest in current affairs and commercial issues, especially in relation to the stock market and currencies. In my spare time I trade simulated funds on financial markets using the platform Trading212.
