

Ciara Hanley-McDonough

An Cladach, Bettystown,

Co. Meath, A92 VY90

Mob: 087-9767766

Ciara.mcdonough4@mail.dcu.com

PROFILE:

A reliable, hardworking student, looking to expand knowledge and experience of the working world

EDUCATION:

September 2015 - May 2019

Law and French (Bachelor of Arts Joint Honours)

Dublin City University

Glasnevin

Co. Dublin

Ireland

- Received a 2:1 in both First and Second year of my degree.
- Study multiple fields of law, including contract, criminal, tort and EU and gaining a great understand of the Irish legal system as well as law from an international perspective
- Learning about world cultures, the importance of diversity in every aspect of life (including the legal world), as well working towards fluency in French and understand how languages form.

September 2009 - May 2015

Sacred Heart School Sunnyside

Drogheda

Co. Louth

Ireland

September 2000 - June 2009 - Scoil an Sproiaid Naoimh NS

EMPLOYMENT:

April 2016- September 2017 - Relish Café

- Busy restaurant and café in the city centre

Working part time in a café while studying,

Working on social skills.

Building a team in a short amount of time to create the best service possible for our customers

Trusted by my superiors working with large amounts of money as well as in a superior role..

Learning how to balance multiple fields of work

Also found my ability to be universal and can work in all areas -

serving, barista, kitchen and preparation - I can learn difficult skills very quickly

Christmas 2015 - Tesco, Grocery Store

shop assistant - working with the public, dealing with complaints and helping to rectify these complete with ease for the consumer.

Ciara Hanley-McDonough

An Cladach, Bettystown,

Co. Meath, A92 VY90

Mob: 087-9767766

Ciara.mcdonough4@mail.dcu.com

2013-2015

Various work experience, learning the rules of professionalism, creating a good work ethic and improving team work skills to carry with me through all future career endeavours.

INTERESTS:

- Member of the DCU Law Society - moot courts, interesting guest speakers in particular fields, making connections.
- I am a qualified Emergency First Responder and aspire to soon complete a life guard course,
- Interested in Foreign Languages and cultures - study French and basic Spanish - culture is major part of society today

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

I have completed an intensive Year Abroad Programme in Lorraine, France from September 2017 to May 2018 where i studied Constitutional Law, French Criminal Law and Tort Law through French

I have have a work visa for Canada valid until 2020, of which I used 3 months during the summer of 2018

I have two certificates in Microsoft Word and PowerPoint and have gain a large understand in the field of IT working in an IT solutions company for experience

Gaisce Presidents Award Scheme - achieved bronze and silver medals in the Gaisce scheme and hope to achieve the Gold medal before the end of my degree

Date of Birth: 15 August 1997