

Cillian Dolan
Crinnage, Craughwell, Galway
Cilliandolan1201@gmail.com | +353 87 464 0060

PROFILE

First-class honours Civil Law Graduate and Scholar. Outgoing and punctual, enjoys new challenges and approaches any task given efficiently and with thought. Excellent policy research and informing skills. Previously worked at the Office of the DPP(Ireland), RDJ Solicitors, Apple, Patrick F O'Reilly Solicitors and Pascal Mullery Solicitors.

EDUCATION

2018-2021

Bachelor of Civil Law (Hons), NUI Galway, Galway (1.1)

Final Year Modules:

Land Law, Equity, Law and Innovation, Clinical Placement, Moot Court, Environmental Law, Evidence Law, Industrial and Intellectual Property

Overall Graduating Result: 1.1(70.52)

Essay: 'Critically analyse Ireland's response to White-Collar Crime in light of recent legislative reform and changing public attitude particularly since the economic crash in 2008'.

2nd Year Modules:

Commercial Law, Company Law, European Union Law, Microeconomics, Macroeconomics
Entrepreneurial Venture Development, Management, Business Finance, Marketing and Essay

Overall Result: 1.1

Essay: 'Has constitutional case law effectively protected the integrity of the electoral and referendum process'.

1st Year Modules:

Constitutional Law, Tort Law Contract Law, Legal Methods and Research, Irish Legal System,
Business Information Systems, Information Management for Business Financial Accounting and Management Accounting.

ACHIEVEMENTS

- Gaisce Volunteering Award.
- NUIG Academic Scholar 2019/20.
- NUIG Academic Scholar 2020/21.
- NUIG International Law Fellow Nominee.

EXTRA CURRICULAR

- Represented regional and provincial teams in athletics and soccer at national level.
- Received a first-class honor's result in NUIG Moot Court Competition.
- Devised a legal application for FLAC (Free Legal Access Centre) as part of NUIG Legal Innovation projects.
- Completing CS50(Computer Science) for Lawyers course on edX by Harvard.

WORK EXPERIENCE

February 2021-June 2021

Office of the Director of Public Prosecution

Legal Intern

- Attendance at pre-trial hearings and online hearings at the Court of Appeal drafting case notes and analysis.
- Engagement with training on international co-operation within the justice system with the Policy and Research Unit.
- Composed research paper on 'state entrapment in Ireland, England and Wales to assist with future cases which involve the defence.
- The paper makes policy recommendations and amendments of the law based on the approach to the concept of entrapment in England and Wales.
- Contributed to possible policy recommendations for a new code of conduct for undercover agents in Ireland.

June-October 2020

Apple College Programme

May-August 2019

Technical Advisor

- Collaborate with regional teams in areas such as sales, customer relations and various product line teams
- Utilised a number of business tools to solve issues for clients.
- Achieved and met targeted goals for KPI and CSAT scores consistently.

December 2015

Ronan Daly Jermyn Solicitors

Legal Intern

- Performed case research in the conveyances and real estate department.
- Assisted in liaising with case clients involving property acquisitions and disposals.
- Input client information into database system.
- Engaged with comprehensive training in legal research and methods for solicitors navigating research databases and utilising legal research tools.
- Researched land law policies and specific interventions, for the development of countries and reduction of poverty as part of a research brief

November 2015

Patrick F.O'Reilly Solicitors

Legal Intern

- Reviewed cases in personal litigation and tortious claims
- Tasked with making recommendations on trial preparations
- Assisted in liaising with case clients via phone and email