Work Experience

August 2022 – Present | Mason Hayes & Curran | Legal Assistant

- I was delighted to be given this opportunity as not only did it allow me to work within new teams and new fee earners within MHC, I also have had the opportunity to have new experiences, specifically those gained in a litigation-heavy department
- My responsibilities within this role include assisting Tusla (Child and Family Agency) in High Court proceedings for Special Care orders
- I also aid my team in work for the Residential Tenancies Board which involves the enforcement of Determination orders

March 2022 - August 2022 | Mason Hayes & Curran | Legal Assistant

- Worked with the projects team in the financial services department of MHC on several large loan sales projects
- Responsible for further assurances projects with particular focus on progressing applications through the property registration authority

- Responsible for management of deed packs, helping fee earners and corresponding with clients and the PRA
- Chaired bi-weekly meetings of the further assurances team

May 2021 – September 2021 | NEXT Blanchardstown | Deliveries Operative

- Worked within the delivery team of Next during the busy summer months
- This involved taking the clothes and homeware items and preparing them to be displayed on the shop floor
- Performance of these tasks was highly monitored through sophisticated timing systems, making this work extremely high pressure with constant deadlines

December 2019- March 2022 | SVCO| Administrative Assistant

- Working closely with Mr. Veerasamy twice a week mostly involving admin work, data entry, bookkeeping and contacting and supporting relationships with clients.
- I also have in the past performed legal research into case law and legislation of current operations within the business and made recommendations from my research before contact with a solicitor is considered
- I have learnt so much about working in an office environment here through the blend of administrative work and my contact with customers of SVCO

February 2019–October 2019| An Post | Night Supervisor

- Promoted to an evening supervisor of the largest delivery office in Ireland, this involved supervising the staff working in the registered mail locker
- Vast experience gained from the management of extra responsibilities e.g., deadlines, customer complaints/care and of fellow staff
- Responsible for resolving missing package claims as well as mail received in the office which was often of high importance e.g., Leaving Certificate scripts

July 2018–February 2019| An Post | Postal Operative

- Delivering packages and letters to various routes around Dublin 15
- High organizational skills gained from sorting of mail
- Full time work that had 12-hour days at times shows my work ethic

Interests and Hobbies

Sport

- Played at a prominent level with both my local Rugby club, Coolmine, RFC and schoolboy rugby for Belvedere College, collectively for 14 years
- Gained a lot of experience in teamwork in an elevated level of sport as well as gaining leadership qualities when captaining teams
- Senior Cup winner with Belvedere College in 2017
- Avid Golfer and member of Hermitage Golf Club in Lucan
