Employment History

July 2017 – November 2018 Supervalu Mount Merrion Deli Counter

Responsibilities :

- Customer interaction – I took customers' orders across the deli, fish and cheese departments, and advised them on food choice and preparation method
- Food standards – I was responsible for cooking, preparing and displaying foods throughout the day and ensuring Supervalu fresh food standards were maintained.
- Organisational skills – stock taking, checking expiration dates, calculation of re-order quantities that minimized waste but ensured maximum availability of product.
- Team work – supported other members of the Deli team in a fast paced environment.

July 2016 – March 2017 Dunnes Stores Cornelscourt Deli Counter

Responsibilities :

- Responsible for the maintenance of quality, presentation and freshness of food through recording food expiration dates and regularly checking temperatures.
- Dealt directly with serving customers and explaining to them about how the food was prepared and answering their queries. These included concerns as to the substantial brand changing of the deli to Baxter and Greene, an upmarket deli.
- I was trained as a barista for the deli.
- Responsible for maintaining cleanliness and food safety standards in compliance with the HACCP system.

Employment History (continued)

June 2013 - September 2013 Superquinn Ltd, Blackrock Sales Assistant

Responsibilities :

- I worked on the checkouts as a till operator.
- The role gave me extensive experience of dealing directly with customers.
- My job was to get customers through the checkouts as efficiently as possible but at the same time politely engage with them to ensure that they had a good shopping experience.
- During my time in Superquinn the rebranding to Supervalu was announced. I received considerable training in communicating the benefits of this change to customers, and also capturing their reaction and feeding this to store management.
