

Ihunanyachukwu Enyi-Amadi
64 The Maltings, Bray, Co Wicklow
Ihunanyaamadi@gmail.com
(087) 976 2784

Education

LL.M. in International and Comparative Law Sept 2017 – Nov 2018
(1st Class Honours)
Trinity College Dublin

Bachelor of Civil Law (Law and Society) Sept 2013- May 2017
(1st Class Honours)
Dublin City University

Relevant Experience

Immigration Information and Advocacy Intern Sept 2018 – Present
Crosscare Migrant Project, 1 Cathedral Street, Dublin 1

Crosscare Migrant Project is an information, advocacy and referral organisation for immigrants and Irish emigrants.

- Provide immigration information to migrants
- Advocate on behalf of migrants with relevant statutory and non-statutory organisations
- Keep up to date with immigration issues
- Support the Information and Advocacy team to ensure the provision of excellent service

Support Worker May 2018 – Present
The Salvation Army, York House, Longford Street Little, Dublin 2

York House provides long-term and short-term accommodation for men experiencing homelessness.

- Develop and implement support plans for clients
- Support clients with attending appointments, completing documentation and applying for appropriate benefits
- Promote client choice and control by utilising a personalised and client-centred key working approach
- Assist with administrative and reception duties

Education OfficerFeb 2018 – Present*African Students Association of Ireland (ASAI), Mandela House, 44 Lower Gardiner Street, Dublin 1

ASAI is the umbrella organisation for Africa Societies in third level institutions across Ireland. The organisation aims to support third level students of African descent.

- Organise events
- Provide training to newly elected committee members from Africa Societies across Ireland
- Liaise with other non-governmental and migrant organisations
- Conduct research on relevant issues affecting African migrants in Ireland

Crew MemberMay 2016 – April 2018*OSG Restaurants Ltd (McDonalds), Bray Town Hall, Co Wicklow

- Delivered hot, fresh food to customers
- Maintained the highest standard of quality and cleanliness in accordance with the restaurant's policies.
- Worked with other staff members to deliver fast and friendly service to every customer at every visit
- Used initiative to resolve customer's complaint efficiently.

Voluntary Experience

- Primary Representative of Trinity College Dublin at the 2018 Corn Adomnán, International Humanitarian Law Competition organised by the Irish Red Cross.
- Contributor at Trinity FLAC research project on Sexual Violence 2017/2018.
- STAND Global Issues Coordinator at Trinity College Dublin from August 2017-December 2017
- Public Relations Officer of the International Justice Mission at Dublin City University from September 2016 – May 2018
- Vice-President of the Afro-Caribbean Society at University of Stirling from January 2016 – May 2016
- Secretary of the Africa Society at Dublin City University from September 2014 – May 2015

Achievements

- Oxford University Press Law Prize for Best Dissertation 2016/17 - Dublin City University, School of Law and Government.
- Uaneen Module Participant Certificate 2016/2017 - the award recognises students who achieved an exceptional level of participation in extra-curricular activities such as clubs, societies, voluntary and community work during their time at university.

References available upon request