WORK EXPERIENCE

June 2021 – Present A&L Goodbody LLP

 I recently joined A&L Goodbody as a paralegal in the LPMS department. I currently work on loan sales, however, using Project management in addition to my legal skills to come to the outcome desired.

September 2020- May2021 July 2018 – June 2019 AMOSS Solicitors, Mount Street Crescent, Dublin 2

- I was an Intern from July 18 June 19 in the Banking and Financial Services department.
- I worked under 2 senior partners, including the Managing Partner with whom I worked with and interacted with on a daily basis.
- I gained invaluable experience here especially when being part of a team of 5 to close a multi-million euro transaction.
- I then returned to AMOSS while sitting my FE1 exams and worked in the Commercial Real Estate department.

February 2018 – March 2020

Raw Marketing, Dublin.

• Brand promotion involves the continuous engagement with a variety of different personalities on a day to day basis

This has significantly enhanced my public speaking ability along with the mind- set of achieving goals when working individually or as part of a team

October 2015 - May 2018

Fossil Ltd, Kildare Village, Nurney Road, Co. Kildare.

- Employed as a retail assistant in a very busy store with a high turnover. Have gained essential skills such as stocktake, cashier use and public interaction.
- Customer service was a vital part of my job and I strived to help the customer to the best of my ability, especially in a company with emphasis on customer interaction.
- I was also chosen to work in England to help increase sale targets also.

April 2016 – August 2017

Horse Racing Ireland /Tote Ireland

- Worked as betting assistant and to promote Irish Horse Racing at major race meetings such as The Punchestown festival and The Galway racing festival.
- My job was to place bets on for customers around the race course and from this I have gained vital cash handling experience and to work with giving accurate change in a fast working environment.
- I was chosen to work personally for President Michael D Higgins at the Galway Festival.

INTERESTS AND ACHIEVEMENTS

- I was a founding member of Darkness into light in DCU and the committee made Darkness Into Light an official venue in Dublin City University.
- I set up a website and non-profit organisation relating to Mental Health along with a fellow student which hopes to engage the student body in a more positive day to day way of mental health awareness, while the business donates profit.
- Along with a close friend, we started a social media management company called Viral Media which is to help companies with a small budget get up and running on social media and to create an aesthetically pleasing website for them. It has been very successful.
- I was a Prefect during my final year in Newbridge College.
- I have an online diploma in financial trading from Shaw Academy.
- I am passionate about travelling and have travelled all over the world including spending 4 months in South east Asia, 4 months in Chicago and 2 months travelling Europe.
- I Have won three county championships with my Gaelic Football Club Moorefield.
- In 2014 I received Trials for Leinster Club team in rugby.

I am an active golf member in the Royal Curragh Golf club.
CHARITY WORK
• I have done Voluntary Work with The Irish Heart Foundation.
• I was selected along with 5 other students in Ireland to climb Mount Kilimanjaro in Africa for a Charity programme but after weeks of preparation did not get to complete this due to a fatal injury in the group.
• I raised 1000 euro for Men's mental health by cycling 80 km in tour de picnic.
• I have travelled to Kenya twice to undergo Charity work in an orphanage with Maintain Hope.
