WORK EXPERIENCE

July – August 2016: Legal intern in the Intellectual Property Department

DFMG Solicitors, Dublin

- Undertook legal research, drafted reports, CPD, lectures and summarised legal decisions
- This required attention to detail, ability to identify key points and broadened my knowledge in intellectual property law
- Gained valuable teamwork experience while advising clients, organising and preparing documents for trial

February 2016 – June 2016: Paralegal

Cabinet d'Avocat REVAH, French law firm based in Saint-Raphael, France

- Responsible for drafting submissions, preparing briefs, conducting research and providing advices, corresponding with clients and assisting the running of a court action

March – August 2014 and January 2013: Traineeship and internship

SELARL POLYAVOCATS, French law firm based in Tahiti, French Polynesia

Independent work:

- Preparing legal proceedings and successfully carrying out a family case until the court's decision increased my willingness to take responsibility within a timeframe
- Gained attention to detail whilst drafting submissions and carrying out legal research
- Advocacy: Prepared a case for trial and spoke in court in favour of the client
Prepared arguments in a logical and concise manner in order to be confident and persuasive in front of the judge

Team work:

- Taking part in meetings with clients; my ability to assess client's needs improved
- Attending various hearings in different areas of law; my capability to identify key components of a case improved

November 2013 – February 2014: Internship as student lawyer

BANK OF TAHITI, legal department, French Polynesia

- Drafted bank account contracts in collaboration with other students and various departments
- Negotiated and drafted settlements on behalf of the bank in order to solve conflicts with clients
- Followed up legal procedures involving the bank
- Researched solutions for clients who didn't honour their credits in collaboration with the debt recovery department
- Gave advice to my colleagues on any legal matters regarding the bank and anticipating their needs by preparing legal notes

September – October 2013: Internship as student lawyer

COURTHOUSE OF TAHITI, French Polynesia

- Attending many hearings with various judges; this highlighted what is expected from a lawyer and gave me a good insight of how a Courthouse operates
- Drafted rulings, sentences and prosecutions with limited supervision
- Visited jail and prisoners with the prosecutor

June 2011: Voluntary internship as student

Jean-Pierre LAMETA, notary office based in Aix-en-Provence, France
