

KATIE GLENNON

Email: glennok@tcd.ie Tel: +353 85 734 9004 Address: 17 Offington Manor, Sutton, Dublin 13

LinkedIn: <http://tinyurl.com/pjxuzjq>

EDUCATION

TRINITY COLLEGE DUBLIN, LLB. (Ling. German), 2012-14, LLB. Law 2014-16

Current Result: Second class honours, 65% overall

Course Transfer: After my second year in Law and German, I decided to more closely align my studies with my professional ambitions. As such, I transferred course to pure Law.

Dissertation Topic: The duty to act bona fide in the best interests of the company under the 2014 Companies Act: The effect on shareholder versus stakeholder primacy theory.

INSTITUTE OF EDUCATION, 2012

Leaving Cert: 535/600 points, A Grades in Higher Level English, History and Biology.

EXPERIENCE

THE INNOCENCE PROJECT

Caseworker 1st September 2015 - Present

- Assisting on an appeal case, uncovering new evidence and finding flaws in the previous legal arguments. All cases are on appeal through a protest of innocence. Conducting client interviews.

A & L GOODBODY

Clinical Legal Education work placement (Insurance Team, Corporate Department) 7th September 2015-31st September 2015

- Preparing court files, writing articles for publication for clients. Gathering exhibits and reviewing procedural aspects of ongoing cases. Researching legal issues and aiding in putting together tenders and client advice for partners.

DELOITTE

Intern (Tax & Legal Department) 2nd June 2015 - 31st August 2015

- Actively applying tax law in Global Employer Services, servicing clients such as Amazon, Facebook and HSBC.
- Awarded Green Dot for excellence in my involvement in Impact Day and Corporate Social Responsibility.
- Made a presentation to partners about methods of retaining and engaging talent within the firm by way of a short term secondment programme.

JAWDROPPER MUSIC MANAGEMENT AND PR

Public Relations Agent, Sep 2013 - Present

- Managing music acts and acting as persuasive liaison to all major radio programmes, blogs, publishers and agents in Ireland, the UK, France, Germany, the Netherlands and the USA.

DESIGNA VERKEHRSMITTEL TECHNIK GMBH, KIEL, GERMANY

Legal Intern, June 2013 - August 2013

- Researching the contrasting philosophies of German and Irish law with particular focus on the abstraction principle and the law of obligation. Producing an extensive document on the subject which was circulated to all staff.
- Shadowing a lawyer on a wrongful termination claim by a former employee. Experienced the entire process from initial claim to court proceedings.
- Translated hundreds of internal documents from German into English.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND SKILLS

- Disability Ambassador, Trinity College Dublin, August 2015 - Present:
Presenting to schools, conferences and workplaces about current issues facing students leaving college. Acting as a counsellor and point of contact for students registered with the Disability Service and assisting with their access to learning technologies and other issues.
 - Part of the Volunteer Tuition Programme: teaching underprivileged inner-city students.
 - Trained and acted as a peer mentor for first year Law and German students.
 - Member of Suttonians Women's Rugby Team.
 - Skilled in HTML, Google Apps, InDesign, Photoshop, Audacity, ProTools, WordPress and most other forms of CMS.
 - Classically trained Flautist - Grade 8, winner of multiple awards.
 - Illness and Rehabilitation Kitten Fosterer for the DSPCA.
 - Typing speed of 72 words per minute.
 - Commissioned artist.
-

PUBLICATIONS

- The Eagle Law Gazette, Trinity College: Currently Deputy Editor in Chief - Author of "Tobaccogate: Plain and Simple" cover article for the Summer 2015 issue.
 - Tracker, A&L Goodbody, 2015
 - Hot Press magazine, Dublin: Editorial/research/marketing intern, May-September 2014
 - Trinity College Law Review: Junior editorial board member and event management 2012/13
-

References available on request