Experience

Customer Service Desk

Woodies Oct 2021 - Mar 2022

In this position, I had the chance to develop my customer service skills by handling clients with various queries and issues. I also expanded on my team working skills as most tasks carried out required a team effort.

Receptionist

Irish Whiskey Museum Mar 2022 - Present

In this role, I had the chance to apply my teamwork abilities. Organizing and executing tours successfully requires cohesive team effort. I took part in organizing events for the business to promote the customer experience. These work experiences were a great way to expand on my skills all while pursuing my four year long bachelors degree.
