

Phone: +353871874801
Email: laithakasheh@outlook.com

161, Adelaide Square, Whitefriar St.
Dublin, Ireland
D08 AC80

EDUCATION

---

LL.M.	Trinity College Dublin, Intellectual Property and Information Technology Law 71, 1st Class Honors, Distinction	June 2022
LL. B.	University of Bristol, Law 63, 2nd Class Honors, First Division (2.1)	May 2021
HSD	King's Academy Advanced Placement Scholar with Honors	May 2018

WORK EXPERIENCE

---

Intellectual Property Specialist- Graduate September 2022-Present
TikTok, Dublin

- Processed intellectual property notice-and-takedown reports accurately and efficiently while maintaining an exceptional quality score of over 99%.
- Implemented and delivered a weekly recap system to manage the high volume of communications.
- Delivered bi-weekly updates on legal trends in intellectual property, summarising recent cases, regulations, and developments in the field.
- Compiled a user-friendly guide for a new tooling system, facilitating seamless adoption among team members.
- Served as the point of contact for the FIFA Women's World Cup, fostering effective coordination with stakeholders and external rights holders.
- Led and delivered various tooling and operational projects that improved our team's workflow.

Legal Intern July 2020-August 2020
ProgressSoft Corporation, Amman

- Conducted comprehensive reviews of terms of use, cookies, and privacy policies, ensuring legal compliance, and providing recommendations for enhancements.
- Analysed legal contracts, extracted critical clauses, and created succinct summaries for internal stakeholders.
- Received specialised training from a distinguished IP firm and contributed to a comprehensive patent landscape analysis centred around online payment systems.
- Initiated and implemented a solution to enhance cross-team communication by recommending the assignment of points of contacts within product teams, streamlining the timely flow of information.
- Crafted and delivered presentations to the CEO and board members, skilfully translating complex legal concepts into accessible insights.

Communications Intern July 2019-August 2019
Human Energy Management

- Reshaped the brand identity, social media, and communications strategies for a science-based training program provider focused on enhancing mental and physical health.
- Demonstrated adaptability and innovation by assuming additional roles, including marketing the flagship workshop, and organising media interactions.
- Initiated a successful sales strategy by executing a complimentary event to attract attendees to the paid flagship workshop. This approach resulted in over 30 attendees registering for the paid workshop.
- Orchestrated a mutually beneficial arrangement, securing a large venue for the free event and offering the sponsor's employees discounted rates for workshop attendance.

EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

---

President

April 2020 to April 2021

University of Bristol Arab Society

- Doubled membership income and engagement during the Covid-19 pandemic.
- Drafted a comprehensive five-year development plan, ensuring sustainable growth for the society.
- Led the society to achieve its first three awards since its foundation in 2009 by leveraging the pandemic as an opportunity to enhance event frequency and capitalising on the streamlined organisation process of virtual events.
- Established the Arab Society Alumni Group, fostering a sense of community and support.
- Forged valuable partnerships with university-affiliated groups and the local community, enhancing the society's impact.

University of Bristol Team Member

January 2020 to April 2020

Lawyers Without Borders Rule of Law Innovation Competition (2nd Place)

- Selected as one of only four students to represent the University of Bristol in a highly competitive innovation competition.
- Designed and created a talking book that raises awareness about wildlife crime in Africa.
- Built an engaging website featuring the book and a supplementary teaching guide with interactive activities, ensuring maximum impact and accessibility.

Assistant Operations Manager

April 2018 to April 2019

Unity and Diversity in Law

- Coordinated events aimed at fostering diversity and equality within the legal sector.
- Devised and executed a comprehensive marketing strategy for the society's flagship event, yielding a substantial upswing in sign-ups compared to the previous year.
- Oversaw the society's social media platforms, amplifying its online presence and fostering higher engagement levels.
- Conceptualised and produced captivating presentations representing the society's mission and initiatives.

Organiser

October 2017 to November 2017

The Human Library

- Initiated discussions with the organisation's founder, leveraging the meeting to secure the event and gain invaluable guidance on optimising its execution.
- Effectively collaborated with stakeholders including the organisation's founder, the school administration, and faculty from other schools to organise the event.
- The event attracted over 100 attendees from schools across Jordan, and its success led to an invitation to speak at a national conference, where I shared insights on utilising libraries as spaces for innovation.

Secretary General

April 2017 to April 2018

Kings Academy Model United Nations

- Successfully led and organised one of the largest Model United Nations (MUN) conferences in the Jordan, managing a team of over 60 members and overseeing 400 delegates.
- Mentored and trained 150 delegates by leading the MUN co-curricular. This involved preparing and delivering three training sessions per week on skills ranging from public speaking to resolution writing.
- Devoted my free periods at school to volunteer and provide training to middle school participants, fostering their understanding of MUN procedures and global affairs.

Elected Representative

September 2016 to May 2017

Honor Committee

- Elected by the student body to represent them in matters of academic dishonesty.
- Sat in ten committee meetings where I practised advocacy skills to represent the students to the best of my abilities.