

Curriculum Vitae

Name: Mary Naughton

Address: 1 The Court,
Clonturk Avenue,
Drumcondra,
Dublin 9

Email mary.naughton89@outlook.com

Mobile: 0874537781

Education

2015-2017

Maastricht University

Master in International Laws

Second year in Universitat Pompeu Fabra, Barcelona

2008 – 2013

University College Dublin

Bachelor of Civil Law (International) with Politics

Achieved a 1.1 Honours Degree

2010-2011

University of British Columbia

International Law University Exchange

Achieved International Honours Degree

Related Experience

January 2018- February 2018

Legal Executive, Annual Leave Cover, Michael Kelleher Solicitors

- Drafting correspondence
- Preparing briefs for barristers and attending court
- Meeting with clients

November 2017- December 2017

Intern, Eversheds Sutherland

- Clerical work (scanning, photocopying, filing and archiving)
- Legal Research
- Transcribing memos and taking notes in meetings

August 2013- September 2014

Parliamentary Researcher, GFC Consulting

- Monitoring the activities of the Irish Parliament and the EU institutions
- Researching and drafting legal opinions and political communications including policy submissions, policy briefs, newsletters and correspondence
- Meeting clients to discuss strategy and regularly updating them on developments in their policy area
- Updating social media, blog and website content

More employment history available on request

Languages

- Spanish and French (Spanish C1 level, French B1).

Awards and Achievements

- Master thesis on employment law in the collaborative economy selected for presentation at the 'Congreso sobre el trabajo en la economía colaborativa', hosted by Universitat de Valencia
- Article on regulation of employment in the collaborative economy to be published in the Spanish Labour Law and Employment Relations Journal
- Selected to participate in Masters Honours Research Programme while at Maastricht University
- Undergraduate thesis published in Interface a Journal for Social Movements
- Winner UCD School of Politics and International Relations Tom Garvin Award 2013

Extra-Curricular Activities

- I was an active member of UCD Saint Vincent de Paul throughout my degree, serving a term as an officer on the society committee.
- I was part of the team that organised the first Latin American Conference Ireland, an academic conference held by the UCD School of Politics and International Relations and the UCD School of Social Justice, which attracted over 300 delegates.
- I have been volunteering with Amnesty International for over five years. In addition to in-office work such as updating the Dublin contact database I have taken part in signature collecting campaigns and days of action to raise awareness. I have also assisted in the organisation of film nights and charity sales.

Additional information

- I have a keen interest in politics and current affairs. I also enjoy running, hiking, sketching and cooking and am a member of a monthly book club.

References

Available on request