Currently studying Law in Trinity College.

- Involved in multitude of sports from a young age which has thought me both a high level of people interaction skills and importance of goal setting and work ethic.
- Member of Saint Vincent de Paul for four years, and achieved my bronze medal in the Gaisce Award.
- For the past two years I have been an active member of FLAC/ ELSA/ and Law Soc within Trinity College.
- Just completed a semester in Emory Law School, Atlanta. Voted in the top 10 Law Schools in America.

WORK EXPERIENCE

- Currently working as a head-waitress in Forest Avenue & Forest and Marcy; two very well respected and known restaurants in Dublin, operating with extremely high standards. Multi-tasking both work on the weekends and college during the week is difficult, but I have learned many skills and abilities within this new role which cannot be taught in college.
 - For the past 2 years, working within the restaurant environment has shown me how diligent and quick one must be to keep things up to such a high standard.
 - I am currently the longest member of staff, hence have obtained duties a manager would usually be responsible for. I train new staff in, deal with any issues which appear on the floor, and overall ensure everything runs smoothly and no problems occur.
 - Lastly, I am aware of the necessity of team work, and co-ordination with fellow co-workers. I enjoy my time working alongside my peers, which makes work easier and gets things done faster and to a higher standard.

- Brand Ambassador for Modern Green, Started June 2015 - Present; Promoting and representing various brands, recently working at Electric Picnic promoting Heinekens new drink responsible campaign.
 - Dealing with customers and being a representation for a brand is a huge responsibility, which is allowing me to gain a huge knowledge into customer service and satisfaction; as well as gaining an insight into the marketing and business world.
- Part-time sales Assistant in Arnotts; with BJ Fitzpatrick; selling Pandora, Alex and Ani, Swarovski and various watch brands such as Hugo Boss, Armani, Michael Kors and Marc Jacob. Christmas 2014 to Summer 2015
 - I consistently demonstrated multi-tasking, handling pressure, working as part of a team and most importantly inspiring customers to consistently make a purchase. For this reason I was the only part-time Christmas temp staff member asked to stay on the Arnotts team after the Christmas season.
 - It was these 8 months which lead me to believe my strengths were based in retail, communicating and dealing with customers on a day to day basis.
- Work Placement for four weeks in Pfizer Nutrition; Summer 2014.
 - Dealing with office administration support
 - Detailed and varied in store work with the retail team, learning key

EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

- Known best by my friends for my love for food, whether it be sweet or savoury
 - Keen interest in baking, cooking, and of course tasting.
 - Currently writing an up and coming new student food blog; 'www.twolittlefoodies.weebly.com' along side one of my fellow 'foodie' friends. Over 2 months, we have created an Instagram with over 1,500 followers, and a daily website view of 120.
 - Also very involved in the well known Trinity Food and Drink Society.
- Huge passion and devotion for music, of all types.
 - Have sang solo at both the National Concert Hall and The Olympia.
 - Playing a vast range of instruments from a very early age; such as the flute both traditionally and classical, and the piano.
- Travel - New Countries, New Places, New People.
 - Summer 2015; travelled around Europe with my best friend, meeting new people and experiencing new cultures.
 - Travelling to 9 different countries within a 4 week period created many memories and experiences which are unforgettable.
 - Over the 6 month period whilst in Emory University I travelled to many states in America including New Orleans, Chicago, Mexico, Las Vegas, New York, Boston, LA, and Miami.
