Professional summary

I am a driven and enthusiastic individual who is passionate about the law as means to address challenges and build opportunities in a range of different contexts. My main focus at this early stage in my career is on gaining hands-on experience of the profession. I am keen on experiencing a variety of perspectives including Commercial law, Environmental law and Mergers and Acquisitions. These are the areas I have focused on and excelled at in my studies to date.

Work Experience

Legal Work Experience

FEBRUARY 2019, MATHESON LAW: I worked in a team compiling research, developing projects and presenting on Environmental case studies as part of their structured Transition Year programme.

APRIL 2019, JOHN LYNCH SOLICITORS I helped my supervisor and his team prepare for court appearances, submitting documentation for trials, archiving files and providing ad hoc support to different solicitors in the practice.

General Work Experience

I have worked several part time jobs while studying in university, these have included call centre work under contract from the Department of Justice, (Adec Arise, Casletroy Limerick); Sales assistant work, (Bergin's Foodfair, and Dunnes Stores, Clonmel); Factory work (APB and Keith Scanlon, Cahir), and tour guiding while on ERASMUS in Vienna.

Skills developed through my work experience

- Teamwork and flexibility in fulfilling a range of different work roles (legal and retail experience)
- The ability to remain task focused over 10-14 hours shifts (retail and factory experience).
- Clear communication and good customer service when working with the public (retail, legal and tour guiding).
