Additional Work History

SALES ASSISTANT | BROWN THOMAS | OCTOBER 2015 – MARCH 2016

- Working as a full time sales assistant in Brown Thomas I developed a high level of communication, organisational, decision-making and interpersonal skills through working in a customer service environment which demands a high standard of professionalism. The commission-based wages also taught me the skills necessary for working in a competitive work environment while still working as a team.

FRONT OF HOUSE | DIEP | 2017-2018

- My responsibilities in Diep required me to have strong communication skills between the customers, the chefs and the drivers. It also expanded my interpersonal and social skills in a fast-paced customer service environment.

Extracurricular Activities and Interests

Travel has been a major interest of mine over the last number of years which has been the motivation of having a number of part time jobs to afford. Through travelling with, and organizing for, large groups to go to foreign places including South America, Asia and parts Northern Africa, I have gained excellent organizational skills as well as communicational skills within a team. A recent achievement of mine is completing a five day trek over the Salkantay Pass in central Peru which spanned over 100km and reached an altitude of 5,600 meters.

Additional Achievements

- Grade 6 in classical guitar
- Raised over €800 and volunteered in Ghana during transition year
- Full driving licence - March 2013
- 120 Kilometre charity cycle
