EXPERIENCE

DANCE TEACHER, BRAY SCHOOL OF DANCE – 2017 - PRESENT

Rebecca has been a dance teacher in Bray School of Dance for four years and teaches children as young as 3 up to vocational and mature students. Her specialties include Ballet, Modern, Tap, DDMIX dance fitness and Progressive Ballet Technique (PBT). She has taught throughout her undergraduate and postgraduate studies.

As a teacher, she holds a qualification in Health and Safety. She holds a Diploma in Dance Instruction from the Imperial Society of Teachers of Dancing and worked toward a higher level Diploma in Dance Education, the exam for which she completed in September 2021.

Being a dance teacher, Rebecca understands the importance of consistency, reliability and punctuality. With children and young adults dependant on her for their education and success in dance, these attributes have proven crucial. Attention to detail and tenacity is also central to her work as a dance teacher. In order to help students achieve technical excellence safely, it is essential that

SALES ASSISTANT, PANDORA GRAFTON ST. – JUN-OCT 2019

Rebecca worked as a sales assistant, as part of a medium sized sales team, on Grafton Street the Summer after her second year in University. Her responsibilities included sales, running the cash register, customer service, jewellery cleaning, making sure that the displays were clean, inviting and well-stocked, and ensuring safe entry and exit from the store for all customers. As a German speaker, Rebecca also conducted sales through German with customers who did not speak English to allow them have a more comfortable shopping experience.

JUNIOR SALES ASSISTANT, SWATCH GRAFTON ST. – MAY-OCT 2018

Rebecca worked as a junior sales assistant, as a member of a small sales team, in the Swatch store on Grafton Street during the Summer after her first year of University. Her responsibilities included sales, running the cash register, conducting minor repairs on watches, ensuring a clean and safe environment for both staff and customers, organisation of stock and conducting inventory audits in store.

As Lissadell House and Gardens began its reopening after the successful challenge of alleged rights of way at the Supreme Court, Rebecca worked as a waitress and kitchen staff member in the Tea Rooms. Her responsibilities included working on the tills, customer service, cleaning, preparing lunches, baking desserts and restocking shelves in the Tea Rooms and gift shop.
