Third year Corporate Law(now known as Law and Business) student at NUI Galway with a high 2.1 average. Interned and gained a multitude of skills from top Irish law firms such as Matheson, William Fry and Byrne Wallace.

EXPERIENCE

LEGAL INTERN, BYRNE WALLACE

Based in the very strong Employment Department of Byrne Wallace during the summer of 2019, experience and skills were gained from trips to the Labour Court, aiding with tasks from solicitors and researching and presenting my own employment law projects under the supervision of employment law lead Partner, Michelle Ní Longáin.

LEGAL INTERN, WILLIAM FRY

Working with Myra Garrett, in the Corporate Department, experience was gained through researching, drafting and presenting memoranda on areas of company law along with learning about process and how important that is. Received IT training and helped trainees with filing and organizing.

14 MAY – 8 JUNE 2018

LEGAL INTERN, MATHESON

Starting out in the Commercial Real Estate department, experience was initially gained through drafting and filing letters and emails on behalf of partners. Received IT training and aided trainees with heavy workloads to meet deadlines and gained experience from sitting in on important meetings.

For the second half of the internship, experience was gained in the Litigation department, where I assisted with the daily newsletter, organized files and had the privilege of joining partners on numerous trips to the Courts and observed ad hoc real time engagement with clients.
