EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Legal Intern

Legal intern in busy general practice, with focus on Criminal and Family. Fantastic exposure to the workings of a legal office with high caseload and lean staffing (predominantly myself and one other solicitor dealing with 30+ Legal Aid cases) leading to a responsibility on me for a high volume of client facing work integral to the progression of cases. In my time at Barron Morris I was responsible for, but not limited to:

- General case management of Legal Aid cases under solicitor in firm (primarily Criminal and Family)
- Attending on counsel in court (High Court, CCJ, Dolphin and Phoenix House), legal notetaking, the supply of necessary documentation and communication/liasing with clients.
- Completion, stamping, swearing and issuing of summonses, affidavits and other necessary legal documentation.
- Drafting of correspondence to clients, counsel, other solicitors and any other relevant parties.
- In addition to Criminal and Family, some limited exposure to other side of the business (conveyancing, drafting and witnessing of wills, and probate).
