

Curriculum Vitae

Seán O'Sullivan 06/04/97

Moorhill House, Brannockstown, Co.Kildare

086-7744997, seanosullivan97@gmail.com

‘A highly ambitious Honours Law graduate of 2018. Motivated and driven by success in sports, academics and the workplace. Past achievements are indicative of this passion for results. Currently studying a Masters in Public Law, graduating from NUI Galway in 2019.’

Educational Details:

University: 2018-2019, LLM Public Law, NUI Galway

2016-2018, Diploma sa Ghaeilge, NUI Galway

2015-2018, Honours Degree in Civil Law, NUI Galway

Secondary: 2009-2015, Glenstal Abbey School, Murroe, Co. Limerick

Primary: 2001-2009 Gaelscoil Chill Dara, Green Road, Newbridge, Co. Kildare

Work Experience:

June 2018- Healy Scanlon Law Firm, Washington Street, Chicago, Illinois

Responsible for the synopsis of large case files into concise reports in one of Illinois leading law firms. Demonstrated high quality legal writing in for providing detailed reports on litigation, personal injuries and cases of medical malpractice. Shadowed leading US attorneys in many of their dealings with the courts and the Illinois Workers compensation committee, including a former president of the association.

January-March 2018: Houlihan and Parnters Solicitors, Ennis, Co. Clare

Acted as a legal researcher with Michael Houlihan Solicitors in Ennis as part of NUI Galway's renowned clinical placement programme. I provided high quality legal writing as I drafted a number of reports on a variety of cases, from personal injury to family law. Attended the firm's weekly litigation meetings where much of the materials up for discussion were prepared for by myself. Voiced my own views and opinions at each meeting with respect to cases under deliberation and specific relevant legislation to each case.

May-August 2017: Shaughnessy Golf Club, Marine Drive, Vancouver, BC, Canada

Operated at one of North America's premier golf and country clubs, where I was responsible for the upkeep of the club's five-star reputation through my interactions with the members. I greatly enhanced my interpersonal skills as greeted each client upon arrival and displayed my abilities to work as part of a team as my division ensured the reputation for world class customer service was upheld in our dealings with each customer.

May-June 2017: Jeeves Tickets, Naas Road Co. Dublin

Demonstrated my ability to work on my own initiative as well as my IT and presentation skills as I promoted the modern ticket kiosk solution for Dublin's main attractions, by releasing a series of blogs for the 'Jeeves Tickets' website which advertised each attraction associated with the online kiosk.

May-August 2016: Dublin Coach, Western Industrial estate, Naas Road, Co. Dublin

Responsible for the complete cash flow within the company. Highlighted my strong analytic ability and common-sense approach to dealing with any suspect financial irregularities.

June-August 2015: Dublin Coach, Western Industrial estate, Naas Road, Co. Dublin

Developed skills such as attention to detail and technical skills as I worked as part of the accounts team, providing key information for the operation of the business in ensuring accurate company data was recorded on spreadsheets and relayed to the head office.

June-August 2014: Quickpark Carpark, Cloghran, Co. Dublin

Displayed my appetite and desire work hard as I was entrusted with the upkeep and maintenance of the airport car park.

January 2014: Treaty Veterinary Clinic, Thomondgate, Co. Limerick

Assisted the veterinary staff with various tasks ensuring the upkeep of the clinic. My ability to work within a fast-paced team environment was nurtured and developed throughout this experience.

November 2013: Glenstal Abbey Call Centre, Murroe, Co.Limerick

Demonstrated high quality interpersonal skills in my role in the Glenstal Abbey Call Centre.

June-August 2013: Moorhill Farm, Brannockstown, Co. Kildare

Obtained the responsibility for the animals and maintenance of a farm over 100 acres with livestock in large numbers. Management of such a vast operation demonstrated my self-motivation and leadership capabilities.

Achievements:

Awarded Glenstal Abbey School's Hidden Achievement Award upon graduation in 2015.

Recognised as NUI Galway Rugby Club under 20's Player of the Year 2016-2017.

Ballymore Eustace GAA Senior Footballer of the Year 2016.

Holder of a number of underage sporting medals in various codes.

Completed a two week, 1400km cycle in aid of Our Lady's Children's Hospital, Crumlin in 2013. The round Ireland cycle raised over 25,000 for the cause.

Holder of an approved first aid certificate, recognized by the Irish Health and Safety Authority.

Qualified as a peer mediator.

Acquired my full driving license in 2015.

Participate annually in the 'Run in the dark' 10km run, which has collectively raised thousands for the Mark Pollock Paralysis Foundation.

Interests:

Enthusiastic speaker and promoter of the Irish Language. Currently tutor a number of leaving cert students in the Galway catchment area at leaving cert level.

Passionate Sportsman, I am a member of my local GAA club in Kildare, I have also represented McBrides GAA of Chicago.

Currently assist in coaching a number of underage GAA sides at Fr. Griffiths Éire Óg GAA in Galway.

Represented my College Rugby team while studying, while I am currently a member of Galwegians RFC, having been recruited into the setup during the Summer of 2018.

A member of my local gym, I enjoy partaking in and am hugely interested in all forms of sport and exercise.

Keen interest in travel and experiencing alternative cultures. Have undertaken various cultural exchange programmes throughout my education, including secondary education in Munich, Germany and a legal internship in the USA.

Enjoy reading, particularly autobiographies and personal, real life accounts, have an interest in human stories.

Volunteered with a number of charitable organisations.

Strong interest in the media, its role, and how it functions.

Enjoy writing, have written articles for the Glenstal Abbey School website.

Informed on current affairs, I regularly enjoy reading newspapers.

Skills:

Hardworking, dedicated, honest and reliable individual.

Thoroughly enjoy working as part of a team while simultaneously being keen to enhance my own personal knowledge.

Skilled in communication and developing personal relationships.

Completed an Alternative Disputes Resolutions course in University and applied to the Chartered Institute of Arbitration (CIARB) to be admitted as an associate member of this Society.

References:

Br. Martin Browne, Glenstal Abbey School, Murroe, Co. Limerick, 087-678-2516

John O'Sullivan, Moorhill Farm, Brannockstown, Co. Kildare, 087-686-2978

John Garrahy, Treaty Veterinary Clinic, Co. Limerick, 087-259-5481

Anne Smith, Dublin Coach, Naas Road, Co. Dublin, 087-982-8858

Una Ahern, Jeeves Tickets, Western Industrial Estate, Naas Road, Co. Dublin, 086-803-7833

Bernard Ting, Shaughnessy Golf Club, Marine Drive, Vancouver, BC, Canada, 604-266-624

Pauline Kane, Michael Houlihan and Partners, Ennis, Co. Clare, 065-684-6000

Jack Cannon, Healy-Scanlon Attorneys, Washington Street, Chicago, USA, 800-787-5431