WORK EXPERIENCE

AZMI & ASSOCIATES, KUALA LUMPUR, MALAYSIA Aug – Sep 2023

Legal Internship

- Gained legal experience in a corporate law environment, where I was an important member of a team dealing with a due diligence report for a large transaction, that involved identifying contracts and extracting documents for accounts, employment, anti-bribery, insurance, and financing agreements.
- Developed key skills of commercial awareness, being client-focused and using my legal research skills to advance a client's interests. Allowed me to gain an insight into the workings of a corporate law firm and a deeper understanding of the practical application of law to real circumstances. I worked to tight deadlines, achieving standards in the quality of my work. My can-do work ethic, quality of work and ability to respond to rapidly changing circumstances were commented upon by my peers.

GLOBALGEM HOTELS LTD, LONDON, UK June – July 2023

RELEVANT SKILLS

Commercial Awareness: Being part of the MUN and various economics and finance groups in school, It required staying up to date with issues everywhere by reading the news and listening to various podcasts, and I have continued to keep that interest to this day and utilizing it in my law degree.

Teamwork: Involved with sports and music from a young age, including numerous orchestra and various team sports such as football, rugby, basketball, and American football constantly working with a team to achieve our goals. Fortunate enough to be elected captain developing crucial leadership, social, understanding, and listening skills.

Communication: Partaking in various MUN conferences, required a clear delivery of points, debating and listening to parties' stances. Also, completed a Toastmasters International Program, enhancing my speech and communication skills.

Information analysis and Research: Having had a reselling business I had to analyse market trends and understand consumer wants. Made significant ROI, developing a critical understanding of the business world.

Organisation: Took part in Sea Cadets and DOE, which gave the opportunity to go on various wilderness camping trips. Requiring organisation of equipment in tough conditions. Sea Cadets required strict organisation of uniforms, ensuring that everything was kept to a high standard.
