Re: Application for Traineeship Programme

Dear Hiring Manager,

I was excited to learn of the current opening at ByrneWallace LLP for Trainee Solicitors, and I would love to be considered for the programme. I am currently in the process of obtaining a Bachelors of Civil Law at Dublin City University, and I am eager to get a start in my legal career once I have graduated.

The experience and skills I bring have fully prepared me to succeed in this programme. I have a solid knowledge of the industry and have demonstrated competencies in communication, teamwork, and time management.

I have received outstanding feedback for my abilities and enthusiasm, and I am reliable in following directions and exceeding expectations. I believe my determination and work ethic will make me an exceptional member of your team and I look forward to the opportunities to contribute and develop new skills.

My reasons for choosing a career in law stem from my passion for working and interacting with people. I believe through a career in law I would be able to have the unique opportunity to help others and make a difference in their lives. Also, I enjoy challenging myself intellectually and believe that the day-to-day role of offering legal services in a wide array of environments, for a variety of situations, will be extremely fulfilling. For myself, a rewarding career is more than just a good salary, the important thing is the way in which I can bring a positive change to other people's lives and the broader community.

The reason I am interesting in pursuing a career with ByrneWallace is because of the firm's approach to dealing with clients in a practical and reasonable way, always with the focus of keeping the client's best interest at heart and utilising the staff you employ to achieve this. I was also happy to hear about the firm's emphasis on collaboration and teamwork, as I believe these methods are key to having a healthy and efficient working environment.

ByrneWallace's Corporate Social Responsibility policy was also very interesting to read up about. ByrneWallace has an immaculate reputation and the firm's efforts to be involved with charitable organisations and volunteering really stuck out to me and made me feel as if I would be a great fit in this kind of environment.

I appreciate you taking the time to review my application for the Traineeship Programme and I hope to speak soon to set up an interview.

Sincerely,
Ava Walsh
