

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in the traineeship position at Byrne Wallace LLP. Currently, I am pursuing a Law and Business (LWB) degree at the National University of Ireland Maynooth, where I have achieved a 2:1 Honours degree in my second year. I am eager to apply my academic knowledge and passion for law in a practical setting, and I believe that Byrne Wallace's commitment to excellence and diverse practice areas align perfectly with my career aspirations.

Through my active involvement as a Moot Court Convenor and representative for various academic societies, including ELSA and FLAC, I have developed essential skills in research, legal analysis, and effective communication. These experiences have sharpened my ability to think critically under pressure and collaborate effectively with peers and legal professionals. Additionally, my role as an Academic Representative has equipped me with the capacity to advocate for student interests and work alongside faculty to enhance academic programs.

My work experience as a Food Processing Operator and Stock Handler has taught me the importance of attention to detail and time management—skills that are crucial for success in a legal environment. Moreover, my passion for engaging with people is complemented by my fluency in multiple languages, including English, Urdu, and Punjabi, which I believe will enable me to connect with a diverse client base.

I am particularly drawn to Byrne Wallace's reputation for providing exceptional legal services and its commitment to fostering a collaborative environment. I am excited about the opportunity to learn from esteemed professionals and contribute to the firm's success while gaining invaluable experience in various legal fields.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss my candidacy further.

Yours sincerely,

Bisma Maqsood
