

To whom it my concern

I'm Cecilia Fourie and I'm currently a final year student in Independent Colleges Dublin on the Llb. Irish law course. As my final examinations are in May I would like to do an internship during the summer prior to doing my first set of FE 1 examinations in October.

I have a passion for law, especially Company Law and Law of Contract. I would be truly appreciative of the opportunity to get practical experience in the solicitor field as it is the path I would like to follow after graduation. I am also applying to Masters Programs at Trinity College Dublin (Masters in International and European Business Law) and Dublin City University (Masters in Law), which I hope to complete while finishing the FE 1 examinations.

I am very hard working dedicated and thrive on being challenged and I think an internship with Byrne Wallace would offer a great opportunity for me to showcase my skills as well as getting hands on experience in what it takes to be brilliant Solicitor.

I have attached two references from two of my Lectures which I hope would demonstrate my determination and passion to pursue a career in law.

Sincerely

Cecilia Fourie

Re: Reference for Cecilia Fourie

A Chara,

I have had the pleasure of having Cecilia Fourie as a student since in or about September 2013. In her first year with Independent Colleges she was a student in my Introduction to the Irish Legal Systems class, in her second year she took my family law class as an additional subject, and she is currently a third-year student in my company law class.

I have lectured in a variety of institution for in excess of 20 years, and I have to say that of all the students I have taught, Cecilia stands out as a young woman of notable ability, and considerable talent. Throughout her time as a student of mine, she has distinguished herself in the consistency of her application to the modules in question, and the extent to which she is willing and able to engage in meaningful debate and discourse within the class context. Cecilia has, to my mind, considerable analytical skill, and independence of thought which would lend itself very readily to post graduate study.

Finally, from a practical perspective, Cecilia has a demonstrable ability to time manage quite a number of commitments and interests without ever, in my experience of her, allowing it to negatively impact on the quality of her work.

If you require any further information in relation to this candidate, please feel free to contact me at any time at the above contact numbers.

Is mise le meas,

To Whom It May Concern,

Re: Cecilia Fourie

I have known Cecilia for the past three years in my capacity as her lecturer in both the Law of Torts & the Law of Contract and as the Head of the Law School at Independent College Dublin. Cecilia is one of the most pleasant, polite, diligent and hardworking students I have ever had the pleasure of teaching over the past fifteen years.

Cecilia's results to date are evidence of the consistency of approach that she has adopted throughout her study on the LLB degree. Her attendance at lectures is always excellent and she has always been an active participant in classes.

Cecilia has displayed great intellectual capacity and a superb work ethic while a student at the College. Should Cecilia's academic performance continue in this manner I would expect her to graduate from the LL.B with a very strong Second Class Honours Degree (Grade One) if not a First Class Honours Degree.

I would recommend Cecilia to you without hesitation. She is an absolute pleasure to deal with, is utterly reliable, bright and hardworking. I believe that she has the work ethic and intellectual capacity to become an excellent solicitor and would be a tremendous asset to your organisation.

Should you have any further queries please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely yours,

Mr Val Corbett
Head of the Law School
Independent College Dublin
