

Ms. Ciara Loftus,
Head of Human Resources,
ByrneWallace LLP,
88 Harcourt Street,
Dublin 2.

15th October 2024

Re: Application for 2025 Trainee Solicitor Programme.

Dear Ms. Loftus,

I am writing to express my interest in the 2025 Trainee Solicitor Programme at ByrneWallace LLP. Your firm's commitment to client service, high professional standards, and an innovative approach to legal practice resonates with my professional values and career aspirations. I believe that with my excellent academics and robust legal background in litigation and compliance, I am well positioned to excel in this traineeship programme.

I am excited by the prospect of training as a solicitor with a well-established and progressive law firm such as ByrneWallace. It is impressive that your firm holds the status as Ireland's only top-ten law firm with Lexcel accreditation to date. I am particularly drawn to the firm's emphasis on technology and collaboration, which aligns with my passion for providing efficient and effective solutions to clients.

In my previous role as a Data Loss Prevention Analyst at Ecko Security, I collaborated with large corporate clients to develop and manage GDPR-compliant data protection strategies. This experience honed my attention to detail and multitasking abilities, allowing me to handle complex tasks with precision and consistency. Furthermore, my role as a Legal Assistant at AIG Ireland provided me with invaluable experience in personal injuries defence litigation. During my time there, I developed the skills necessary to thrive in a fast-paced, challenging legal environment. I always bring a 'can do' attitude and a meticulous approach to my work, ensuring targets are met without compromising quality.

I believe that I match the criteria for ByrneWallace's search for passionate, driven, and academically strong individuals. My excellent communication skills, keen interest in the law, and dedication to delivering high-quality work will allow me to thrive in this Trainee Solicitor Programme. I am eager to contribute to the firm's continued success and further develop my legal expertise within such a supportive setting. I believe that I will gain outstanding legal training with ByrneWallace, which will ensure I become a skilled solicitor and advisor in time. This will, in turn, allow me to contribute meaningfully to any ByrneWallace team I am placed with.

I would welcome the opportunity to become part of an award-winning law firm such as ByrneWallace, and I look forward to discussing this role further with you.

Thank you for considering my application.

Kind regards,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "C. Jolley", positioned above a horizontal line.

Christian Jolley, LL.M, LL.B.