Attention: Graduate Recruitment Manager

Dear Sirs/Mesdames:

I am writing to express my interest in ByrneWallace's Graduate Recruitment Programme. I have lived in Vancouver for the past two years working within the legal industry, specifically as a legal assistant within the corporate law department of Harper Grey LLP. As a law graduate, I am excited to embark on my legal career with a leading firm like ByrneWallace. I have successfully completed the FE-1 examinations and received an academic award for attaining the top mark in the Equity law exam in 2021.

Throughout my studies and work experience, I have gained a strong foundation in various areas of law, including Commercial law and Wills & Estates law. My time at Harper Grey LLP has equipped me with the analytical and critical thinking skills essential for navigating complex legal issues. I have developed practical skills through client meetings where I worked alongside experienced solicitors, handled client inquiries, and assisted with document drafting.

I am particularly drawn to your firm's expertise in corporate law which aligns with my academic interests and career aspirations. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to a firm that is committed to forward thinking legal services.

Thank you for considering my application. I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience can contribute to ByrneWallace's Graduate Programme. I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,
Christopher McAnenly
