

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to you to express my interest in this internship position at ByrneWallace and outline my excellent suitability for the position. Both my academic background and the organisations in which I am currently involved have given me the skills, knowledge and experience required to make me the ideal candidate for this role.

As you will note from my enclosed CV, I am at present completing a European Affairs Certificate at Sciences Po, in Paris, with a heavy focus on public policy and legislation, as part of my degree in Politics and International Relations with History at University College Dublin. This academic background will prove invaluable when performing the responsibilities of this role, with regards to assisting your legal practitioners in their work, participating in learning programmes and engaging in the internship programme as a whole.

Presently, I am also the Irish representative of Model European Union Strasbourg 2019, and in this capacity, I am in regular contact with MEPs, State bodies and Irish universities in order to raise funding and garner support for the political simulation. I believe that my experience in this role, is highly pertinent and an asset to your organisation.

I am now looking to secure a challenging and rewarding role, and I believe that these skills, along with my knowledge and expertise, would make me a worthy addition to your organisation. I can be contacted on +353 (0) 83 458 1388 at your discretion.

Yours faithfully,

Conor Spain
