To the Manager of the Intern Programme,

Re: Summer Internship Programme 2019

I am a final year Business & Law student at University College Dublin. I am writing to you to express my interest in the ByrneWallace Internship Programme, which I happened upon on your website. I expect to graduate in May 2019 with a 1.1. Following completion of my degree, I expect to have eight FE-1s passed by April 2020. The details of my education can be found on my CV, which is attached.

I am most interested in completing a summer internship in ByrneWallace. I have a keen interest in all areas of law which I have studied thus far, and I know that interning in ByrneWallace will stand me in good stead for applying to train as a solicitor within the firm.

One of the many reasons I am applying to ByrneWallace is because of the firm's reputation as a leading Irish law firm. The Firm's reputation stands taller now than ever before, having won a number of awards and accolades in recent years. I am eager to get an opportunity to work in ByrneWallace and to support some of the country's leading solicitors, associates and partners in the work that they do. The fact that ByrneWallace's Health and Public Sector departments have been ranked as Tier One by Legal 500 is particularly appealing to me, as are the Firm's Tier Two rankings in Real Estate, Insolvency, and Dispute Resolution. Furthermore, interning in a firm with such an emphasis on continuous development would offer me a really challenging and interesting experience and would be an excellent stepping stone in my long-term goal which is working as a successful commercial solicitor.

I am confident that I would flourish as an intern in ByrneWallace this summer. Having completed an internship in A&L Goodbody last summer, I have developed a sense of commercial awareness that I know will stand to me in the internship programme. I have strong analytical and problem-solving skills which I see as crucial for any business adviser to have. As an intern in ByrneWallace I would strive to assist my team through critical thinking, research, and determination to succeed. I feel that I would be a suitable candidate for the role due to the vast range of work experience I have in Ireland, Canada and the United States that has enabled me to develop transferable skills in the workplace such as time management, communication and teamwork. I want to be challenged and stimulated in my career, and I want to reach my full potential among other people who wish to do the same. This is the beginning of my career in law and I am very much looking forward to the rest of that journey with you.

I am available for interview at your convenience, and very much look forward to hearing back from you.

Yours Faithfully,

Diarmuid Doyle.
