Byrne Wallace

RE: Trainee program

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am contacting you to express my interest in the above opportunity with Byrne Wallace. After reviewing the position requirements, I believe that my qualifications and education are a great match.

My Business & Law degree combined with training and experience has provided me with a great foundation of knowledge and skills. I learn new processes quickly and I'm good at client representation, government regulations and legal advisory. I have a resourceful approach to problem-solving, tackling challenges head-on and I consider obstacles learning experiences. I'm a people person with high energy and a lot of ambition to succeed.

During my time at UCD, I found corporate law and intellectual property law modules such as copyright law and commercial law the most invigorating. This was only solidified when I had the opportunity to put theoretical concepts into practical applications during my internships at Mason Hayes & Curran and Matheson as a legal Intern. I found working directly with clients whistle also continuously learning about the emerging new areas of law extremely intriguing.

Following the end of the Covid pandemic, I was honoured to have been selected to represent UCD at the Harvard model united nations conference in Boston which allowed me to strengthen my communication and teamwork skills with colleagues from all around the world. As an avid debater I am continuously working on improving my writing and communication skills which were further developed by the extensive mentorship I received from partners at Mason Hayes & Curran on Instructions I would draft to clients or council.

As a corporate finance intern at Deloitte I would often be required to support different projects simultaneously this would require me to correctly prioritise tasks and develop a strong sense of time management and attention to detail for example during my time at Deloitte I was assisting both the Receivership team as well as the Members & Creditors Voluntary liquidations team, although challenging at times my work ethic improved significantly and it was incredibly fulfilling to work as a team towards an objective. These experiences have allowed me to become confident in my ability to analyse the operations and the structure of a company and come to practical conclusions based on my findings.

I would greatly appreciate your review of my enclosed resume and outlined credentials. I believe that I can be a valuable addition to Byrne Wallace and your business goals. At your convenience, I am available for an interview or further discussion. I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,
Djabir Madani
