Dear Ms. Loftus,

I am pleased to submit my application for the ByrneWallace Trainee Solicitor Programme.

I am a highly motivated and diligent student in the final year of a Business and Law degree in University College Dublin, with an excellent academic track record. I have a broad range of extracurricular interests.

I am passionate about pursuing a career in law and have almost three years of work experience in a law firm. Having worked in a small solicitors practice, I am eager to experience the challenge of training with a larger firm. I believe ByrneWallace is the firm with which I would most like to pursue my career.

I attended the ByrneWallace Trainee Insights Webinar which was extremely informative. I was struck by ByrneWallace's culture which was described by Feargal Brennan as respect, courtesy and service to all. These sentiments were echoed by all speakers at the event which confirmed to me that the Trainee Programme is both immersive and challenging. I aspire to be part of this dynamic and growing firm and I believe I would make an excellent addition to any of your teams.

My immediate career goal is to develop into an excellent solicitor and I believe ByrneWallace's trainee programme will support me in this process. If successful in my application, I will strive to achieve excellence and deliver results for ByrneWallace.

Thank you for considering my application and I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,

Ellen Walsh
