

Clontibret, Monaghan
1/10/2024

Grace O'Neill

ByrneWallace Traineeship Programme

Re: Traineeship Programme

To whom it may concern,

I would like to apply for the Traineeship position advertised on your website. After reading an overview of the job description and the expectations of this position, I believe I possess many of the skills this job requires.

After much research of the description of this job vacancy, I believe that I am well equipped for this role. Upon my research into this company, I learnt that involvement and volunteering in the local community is an essential component of ByrneWallace beliefs. I stand with this idea, having spent years volunteering for my local Gaelic team in New York, coaching young girls and helping organize charity events to support Irish Culture abroad. Additionally, volunteering for the Irish Emerald Isle in New York, taking part in the Christmas 'shoebox' appeal to raise money and essential supplies for those in need during the Christmas period. Within college, being a part of the ELSA Society has shown me a strong sense of community, taking part in Law Career Fairs, weekly meetings and social evenings, and networking events to help students with any questions they may have about law or specifically our society. Additionally, I've had the opportunity to read the ByrneWallace 2025 Budget Briefing; Mortgage Interest Tax Relief sparked my attention, due to the ongoing and increasing housing crisis in Ireland. This tax relief extension for those who qualify is extremely beneficial financially and something I find very important.

I feel I would be well suited to this position because of my current skill set as well as my determination to learn more. I believe the qualities I possess such a strong leadership, and my goal-oriented attitude will help me in this role. My experience with different law societies throughout my college career has equipped me to handle real challenges and experiences with working different groups of people. I consider myself to be resilient, having the abilities to overcome barriers and adapt to changes and problems as they arise, allowing me to succeed in this position.

I would greatly appreciate the opportunity to be considered for this role and believe that upon my selection I can be a huge addition to the team.

Yours sincerely,

Grace O'Neill

GRACE O'NEILL

