

Dear Partners,

I am writing to express my strong interest in obtaining a solicitor training contract at ByrneWallace LLP, a distinguished law firm renowned for its excellence in legal services and commitment to client satisfaction. With a reputation for innovative and comprehensive legal solutions, ByrneWallace LLP stands as a firm that embodies the values and standards I aspire to uphold in my legal career.

My dual expertise as a law graduate and a part qualified Chartered Tax Advisor (awaiting Part 3 results) places me in a unique position to contribute to both legal and financial discussions. The role of a solicitor is a dynamic and influential one, requiring a unique combination of skills, ethics, and a profound dedication to the pursuit of justice. It is with great enthusiasm and a deep sense of purpose that I am drawn towards this profession and I am eager to embark on the next phase of my professional journey. ByrneWallace LLP's reputation for providing exceptional legal services across a diverse range of practice areas aligns seamlessly with my own interests and career aspirations. Furthermore, your firm's commitment to fostering a collaborative and inclusive working environment resonates deeply with my own values, making it an ideal platform for my professional growth.

During my professional experience pursuits, I have excelled, demonstrating a strong analytical aptitude and a keen attention to detail. These skills have been further honed through my secondment with Northern Trust, where I had the privilege of assisting the Ireland Client Expenses Team, providing critical support in various aspects of fund administration. I gained valuable insights into the operational intricacies of the fund administration sector. This experience has equipped me with a well-rounded understanding of the financial services industry, further enhancing my capabilities as a Tax Trainee.

Beyond my technical abilities, my interpersonal skills have played a crucial role in my professional success. I possess an innate ability to connect with individuals from diverse backgrounds and perspectives. This enables me to build strong and lasting relationships with clients, fostering an environment of trust and open communication.

I am particularly drawn to ByrneWallace LLP's reputation for its commitment to corporate social responsibility and community engagement. Your firm's involvement in various charitable initiatives and pro bono work aligns with my own dedication to making a positive impact beyond the legal sphere.

I am excited about the prospect of contributing to ByrneWallace LLP's esteemed team of legal professionals and being a part of its continued success. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my background and aspirations align with the ethos of your esteemed firm.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of an interview.

Sincerely,

Hillary McCormack-George
