

Byrne Wallace

88 Harcourt Street

Dublin 2

D02 DK18

I am writing to apply for a Trainee Solicitor position in your law firm. I am Bachelor of law and a Master of law graduate with 2 years of relevant legal experience.

I have acquired a vast amount of knowledge in the legal sector whilst working in different departments (debt recovery, litigation and NGO) and am privileged to have had the opportunity to work in Byrne Wallace. I have real life experience as to the ethos of this firm and am cognisant of the sheer amount of hard work, support and team spirit that is Byrne Wallace. I am attracted to the firm's drive, success, rapid growth and superior reputation. I am of firm belief that I will greatly benefit from the wealth of knowledge and wisdom of the firm. I am enthusiasm about Byrne Wallace's focus on corporate efficiency and the firm's clientele focus. I welcome the opportunity to contribute to your continued growth.

I personally am an organised person with great attention to detail. I have supervisory experience and can manage my tasks efficiently as demonstrated in my current position. I am a focused and hardworking individual who is able to take and utilise criticism constructively. Having worked in other excellent firms, I appreciate the value of this firm. I succeed at working independently as much as I enjoy mutually working with teammates. I pride myself on the ability to expand my knowledge, avail of opportunities and to adapt myself to the best of my abilities

I believe my personal and academic achievements demonstrate my capability and abilities. I have demonstrated my leadership, communication and professionalism throughout my short career. I pride myself on the ability to establish and maintain strong relationships with people from all works of life and to adapt that manner on all professional levels. I have demonstrated this during my a number of volunteering activities where I have held both leadership positions (SVP, Tutoring) and internship positions (Transparency International). I have shown organisation skills and initiative when I opened a small personal business (Catering small baked goods).

My credentials, background and sound references are proof of my work ethic and reinforce that I am an asset to your firm. I enclose my curriculum vitae, which displays my full legal experience up to date. I am positive that I will be useful to the firm and will embody the beliefs and practises of the firm.

I would welcome the chance to discuss this opportunity at an interview with you. I can be reached at 0892047771 and jadebakare01@gmail.com

Kind regards

Jade Bakare
