

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am confident my work experience, my skills and my personal strengths will fit the requirements of the trainee solicitor role.

I have enclosed my CV and I would like to highlight the following points that I feel will be of benefit in this position:

- Previous work experience in a variety of different professions around Europe.
- My organisational skills and ability to work accurately and pay extreme attention to detail.
- Excellent computer literacy and experience in adapting and working with a variety of software packages and databases.
- Currently studying Economics, Politics and Law focussing primarily on all law modules for my final year.

I look forward to meeting with you to discuss my application further.

Kind regards,

Jordan Power
