Re: ByrneWallace LLP Trainee Solicitor Programme

Dear Graduate Recruitment Manager,

I am writing this letter to express my sincere interest in the ByrneWallace Trainee Solicitor programme. This letter is intended to clearly outline the reasons for which I believe I would excel as a trainee solicitor at ByrneWallace LLP, should I be afforded the opportunity to do so.

As legal assistant in a small practice, I have gained much practical insight and knowledge regarding the work of a law firm. I have gained a particular expertise in the area of personal insolvency, namely bankruptcy as an insolvency solution. Prior to gaining experience in bankruptcy, it was not speciality that interested me. However, having worked closely to become familiar with the intricacies of the area and in particular, using my knowledge daily to achieve excellent results for clients has taught me to be more open minded as to specialities that I might enjoy and thrive in. The fact that ByrneWallace is a full-service firm is very appealing to me as I would truly relish the opportunity to work in a market leading environment, and learn from high calibre legal experts across a wealth of legal niches.

One of the main reasons why I want to begin my legal career in ByrneWallace is because it is clear from the trainee testimonials that ByrneWallace is a firm that values trainees and staff and encourages their learning and growth. This is a hugely persuasive and inviting factor for me as I consider a supportive work environment to be essential to success.

I thank you for your consideration in this matter, and for the time taken to review my application. I would be obliged to answer any queries you may have regarding my application.

Yours faithfully,

Kathleen O'Carroll
