To whom it may concern,

My name is Kevin Fitzpatrick. I am a Senior Sophister Law and German student at Trinity College Dublin. As a Law and German student I have excellent knowledge of both Irish and German legal systems. Having just completed my ERASMUS year in Munich with a II.I and previously having completed a Summer internship with the German-Irish Chamber of Commerce, I consider myself to be fluent in German and comfortable in a legal setting in both English and German Languages.

I am enthusiastic, flexible and a fast learner. Through my experiences in employment and education I have been forced to adapt to unfamiliar environments, whether it be completing my ERASMUS year or internship in German, working in highly demanding retail and hospitality jobs or just taking on new challenges such as American Football or the Trinity Singers, I am consistently pushing myself to adapt and succeed in every facet of my life.

My strong interpersonal skills have helped me moved up the ranks in my job at the Aviva Stadium as well as helping me be elected to the DU Quiz Soc Committee. Having played team sports, sang in a choir, played in bands and been on a team of volunteers selected to build a house in Zambia, I know the importance and value of teamwork, co-operating and trusting others. I am intelligent and highly motivated academically, my results are always improving and I am confident that I will improve again in my final year.

I am a well rounded and hard-working individual. I have relevant legal experience and all the characteristics needed to work for you and meet the high standards that would be expected of me. I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours Faithfully,

Kevin Fitzpatrick
