Re: Trainee Programme 2019

Dear Ms. Loftus

Further to your advertisement on your website, I would like to apply for a position on your trainee programme commencing in 2020. As requested, please find enclosed a detailed CV.

My desire to study law is strongly rooted in my interest in world events, helping others, and resolving conflict. Law makes an important contribution to our society every day, and I am keen to make it my career.

Throughout university, I have been a member of the law society and have always taken part in the law faculty activities in the university, such as the annual Moot Court competition. I have visited the Supreme Court in Dublin City and last year had the opportunity to visit the International Criminal Courts and the International Court of Justice in The Hague, Amsterdam. Currently, I have attained strong 2.1 in my undergraduate and postgraduate degree. I aim to commence my FE1s in October 2019. Academically, I have always been extremely determined to succeed.

In addition to my academic interests, I have also been involved with working alongside charitable organisations such as Solas and Safe Haven Project. These opportunities have given me skills I value considerably.

I am employed in the property department as a Legal Secretary in ByrneWallace working closely with high calibre solicitors. ByrneWallace is a firm that embraces cultural diversity and inclusivity which is why I am keen to be a part of the ByrneWallace trainee programme. I believe this role would develop my intellectual abilities, give me the independence and proficiency to succeed in my career. I see law as a career in which I will have the possibility to improve other peoples' lives and be able to calculate the nature of human relationships and reasoning. I believe I am socially and academically equipped for all the challenges I may come across during this programme. It would be a privilege to be awarded such a position.

Thank you in advance and I look forward to hearing from you and can be contacted anytime on my mobile (085) 1739851 and lauraduro03@gmail.com.

Yours sincerely

Laura Durojaiye
