Dear Ms. Beth Onslow,

My name is Laura Morrin, and currently I am in my final year at University College Dublin Sutherland School of Law. I am currently endeavouring to secure a legal internship with a Dublin based law firm, and I have a particular interest in company and EU law. Peers suggest to me that I am adaptable, a team player and focused in my approach to my studies.

I have long desired to pursue an internship in ByrneWallace, Ireland's premier law firm. Situated in the heart of Dublin city, ByrneWallace embodies for me the epitome of what a law firm should strive to be. A firm built on excellence, strength, and dedication, these three values are in fact values that I believe myself to possess. It is a firm that has been at the forefront of my university years, due to its immaculate name and pristine reputation. The diverse range of expertise that your firm exerts and strong focus on social events within the internship means that the experience to be gained at ByrneWallace cannot be reciprocated elsewhere.

Attached with this letter is an up to date copy of my CV. If you could pursue the contents and should you be gracious enough to consider meeting with me, I will do so at your convenience. I can be contacted at either the above address, through email, or by telephoning 0868981653. I am able to supply both academic and professional character references on request. Thank you for taking the time to read this letter.

Yours sincerely

Laura Morrin
