

Ludovic AJORQUE
Flat 1 – 5 Belgrave Road
Rathmines – Dublin 6
Ireland
ajorquel@tcd.ie

October 20th 2016

Dear Madam, dear Sir,

I am writing to you to apply for your trainee programme.

First of all, I am a hard-working and enthusiastic person. I am particularly ambitious in my career, which is why I have always demonstrated a high motivation in order to succeed in my studies. Indeed, my willingness has enabled me to follow the selective programme of a bilingual Bachelor's degree in French Law and English Law in Toulouse. I was further selected to partake in the Erasmus programme, spending my final year in Trinity College Dublin. I am currently a Masters student in International and European Business Law in Trinity College Dublin.

In addition to that, I am sociable by nature. I enjoy working in teams, and have done so in different contexts over the last few years. For example, I enjoyed participating in mock trials and oral presentations, and worked as an intern in a notary's office in 2012.

Moreover, throughout my studies, I have studied various modules of French Law and Irish Law which provided me with strong knowledge of both legal systems, including constitutional law, family law and penology courses. I decided to extend this knowledge at a European and International level, especially over the last two years, studying aspects of Irish Law in a European context, EU Law and EU competition law. As a consequence, over these years of legal studies, I have developed an exhaustive knowledge of Common Law principles notably across Ireland, the United Kingdom and the United States.

This year, I have made the decision of coupling my keen interest in business with my legal background specializing in law and business. The international dimension of this degree will provide me with the ability to collaborate with international firms during the course of my future career. My final career goal is to work as a solicitor in your company, that is why I am going to take the Fe1 exam in October 2017 and March 2018.

Last but not least, being a trainee in your company will be a privilege given its fame and the quality of its services, both from international and domestic perspectives, which is why I would be thrilled to start my legal career with you. I do believe that my multicultural legal background, my enthusiasm and my eagerness to learn would suit the philosophy, the spirit and the excellent reputation of your firm.

If you would like to inquire about any further information, I would be more than happy to assist.

I hope to hear from you soon, should my profile be of interest to you.

Yours faithfully,

Ludovic AJORQUE