Trainee Solicitor Programme 2025

Dear Recruitment Team,

I am writing to express my interest in the Trainee Solicitor Programme at ByrneWallace LLP, as advertised. With my strong foundation in law, hands-on experience managing client case files, and dedication to delivering exceptional legal services, I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to your esteemed firm.

Currently, I am a FE-1 Candidate with the Law Society of Ireland, having successfully passed four exams thus far. I am also a Master's Student in Law at Germany's State Distance-Learning University (FU Hagen), where I am deepening my understanding of both German and EU Law. This commitment to further education reflects my dedication to personal growth, hard work, and a continuous desire to expand my legal knowledge.

My time at Wilkie & Flanagan Solicitors has provided me with valuable insights into the workings of an Irish law firm and helped me adapt to its practices. Additionally, as a Working Student at Ecclesia Group, Germany's largest insurance broker for companies and institutions, I manage client case files in the VIP department, focusing on high-value insurance contracts. This role has honed my organisational skills and ability to communicate effectively with clients and other insurers, ensuring that their interests are prioritised and protected. My experience at Ecclesia Group has also familiarised me with the commitment to high professional standards and client service, qualities that I know are essential at ByrneWallace.

I am particularly drawn to ByrneWallace's commitment to excellence, exemplified by your Lexcel accreditation and ISO 27001 certification. Your forward-thinking approach and dedication to leveraging technology to enhance client relationships and service delivery resonate with my professional values. Furthermore, my interest in EU and Employment Law aligns with ByrneWallace's domestic and international approach to client service, and I am eager to contribute to your mission of securing the best possible outcomes for your clients while working alongside a talented team of legal professionals.

I am excited about the possibility of joining ByrneWallace LLP and contributing to your commitment to excellence. Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experiences align with the needs of your firm.

Yours sincerely,

Miriam Bayer
